Declaring what Ensign or Colours shall be borne at Sea, in Merchant Ships or Vessels belonging to any of His Majesty's Subjects of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, and the Dominions thereunto belonging.

GEORGE R.

WHEREAS, by the First Article of the Articles of Union of the Kingdoms of Great Britain and Ireland, as the same have been ratified and confirmed by Two Acts of Parliament, the one made in Our Parliament of Great Britain, and the other in Our Parliament of Ireland, it was provided that the Ensigns Armorial, Flags, and Banners of Our United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland should be such as We should appoint by Our Royal Proclamation under the Great Seal of Our said United Kingdom: And whereas We have, by Our Royal Proclamation dated this Day, appointed and declared that the Arms, or Ensigns Armorial of the said United Kingdom, should be as therein-expressed: And whereas, according to ancient Usage, the Ensigns, Flags, Jacks, and Pendants worn by Our Ships, and appointed as a Distinction for the same, ought not to be worn on board any Ship or Vessel belonging to any of Our Subjects, so that Our Ships, and those of Our Subjects, may be easily distinguished and known, We have, therefore, thought fit, by and with the Advice of Our Privy Council, to order and appoint the Ensign described on the Side or Margin

hereof to be worn on board all Ships or Vessels belonging to any of Our Subjects whatsoever, and to issue this Our Royal Proclamation to notify the same to all Our loving Subjects, hereby strictly charging and commanding the Masters of all Merchant Ships and Vessels belonging to any of Our Subjects, whether employed in Our Service or otherwise, and all other Persons whom it may concern, to wear the said Ensign on board their Ships or Vessels: And to the End that none of Our Subjects may presume, on board their Ships, to wear Our Flags, Jacks, and Pendants, which, according to ancient Usage, have been appointed as a Distinction to Our Ships, or any Flags, Jacks, or Pendants in Shape and Mixture of Colours so far resembling Ours as not to be easily distinguished therefrom, We do, with the Advice of Our Privy Council, hereby strictly charge and command all Our Subjects whatsoever, that they do not presume to wear in any of their Ships or Vessels, Our Jack, commonly called the Union Jack, nor any Pendants, nor any such Colours as are usually borne by Our Ships, without particular Warrant for their so doing from Us, or Our High Admiral of Great Britain, or the Commissioners for executing the Office of High Admiral for the Time being: And We do hereby also further command all Our loving Subjects, that without such Warrant as aforesaid, they presume not to wear on board their Ships or Vessels any Flags, Jacks, Pendants, or Colours, made in Imitation of, or resembling Ours, or any Kind of Pendant whatsoever, or any other Ensign than the Ensign described on the Side or Margin hereof, which shall be worn instead of the Ensign before this Time usually worn in Merchant Ships; saving that for the better Distinction of such Ships as shall have Commissions of Letters of Mart or Reprisals against the Enemy, and any other Ships or Vessels which may be employed by the principal Officers and Commissioners of Our Navy, the principal Officers of Our Ordnance, the Commissioners for Victualling Our Navy, the Commissioners for Our Customs and Excise, and the Commissioners for Transportation for Our Service relating particularly to those Offices, Our Royal Will and Pleasure is, that all such Ships as have Commissions of Letters of Mart or Reprisals shall, besides the Colours or Ensign hereby appointed to be worn by Merchant Ships, wear a Red Jack with a Union Jack described in a Canton at the upper Corner thereof, next the Staff; and that such Ships and Vessels as shall be employed for Our Service by the principal Officers and Commissioners of Our Navy, the principal Officers of Our Ordnance, the Commissioners for Victualling Our Navy, the Commissioners for Our Customs and Excise, and the Commissioners for Transportation for Our Service relating particularly to those Offices, shall wear a Red Jack with a Union Jack in a Canton at the upper Corner thereof, next the Staff as afore-

And We do hereby command and enjoin the Judge and Judges of Our High Court of Admiralty for the Time being, that they make strict Inquiry concerning all such Offenders, and cause them to be duly punished; and all Vice-Admirals and Judges of the Vice-Admiralties, are hereby also required to proceed in the like Manner, within the several Ports and Places belonging to their respective Precincts. And Our further Pleasure is, that this Proclamation shall take Place according to the Times hereafter mentioned; videlicet, For all Ships in the Channel or British Seas, and in the North Seas, after Twelve Days from the Date of these Presents; and from the Mouth of the Channel unto Cape St. Vincent, after Six Weeks from the Date of these Presents; and beyond the Cape, and on this Side the Equinoctial Line, as well in the Ocean and Mediterranean as elsewhere, after Ten Weeks from the Date of these Presents; and beyond the Line after the Space of Eight Months from the Date of these Presents.

My Lords, and Gentlemen,

I Cannot suffer this Session to close without returning you My particular Acknowledgments for the distinguished Industry and Zeal with which you have applied yourselves to the interesting Object which, at the Commencement of the Session, I most especially recommended to your Attention.

It has been My earnest Wish that nothing should be omitted which could tend to relieve the Pressure occasioned by the present Dearth of Provisions, and to insure a sufficient Supply till the Produce of the next Harvest can be brought into Use.

The Diligence with which your Inquiries have been conducted has afforded you the best Means of ascertaining the true Circumstances of Our present Situation; and the extensive Measures which you have wisely adopted in consequence, for diminishing the Consumption of Grain, and procuring an increased Supply, will, I doubt not, be found productive of the most salutary Effect.

Much, however, must depend on the Disposition which will, I am confident, be manifested by all those who have the Means of carrying into Execution My solemn Recommendation and Injunction, issued at your Desire, for the Adoption of all practicable Economy in the Use of those Articles which are necessary to the Subsistence of the poorer Classes of My Subjects.

The Time fixed for the Commencement of the Union of Great Britain and Ireland will necessarily terminate your Proceedings on this important Subject; but I am persuaded that the Consideration of it will be resumed with the same Zeal and Temper on the First Meeting of the Parliament of the United Kingdom.

The early Period which I have appointed for that Meeting will afford a speedy Opportunity of completing whatever you may have necessarily left unfinished, and of considering what Measures may tend further to alleviate the Pressure on My People, or to prevent the Danger of its recurring.

Gentlemen of the House of Commons,

I thank you for the Readiness with which you have granted the Supplies necessary, under the present Circumstances, for the Publick Service.

My Lords, and Gentlemen,

The Detention of the Property of My Subjects in the Ports of Russia, contrary to the most solemn Treaty, and the Imprisonment of British Sailors in that Country, have excited in Me Sentiments in which you and all My Subjects will, I am sure, participate. I have already taken such Steps as this Occasion indispensably required; and it will afford Me great Satisfaction if they prove effectual: But if it shall become necessary to maintain, against any Combination, the Honor and Independence of the British Empire, and those Maritime Rights and Interests on which both Our Prosperity and Our Security must always essentially depend, I entertain no Doubt either of the Success of those Means which, in such an Event, I shall be enabled to exert, or of the Determination of My Parliament and My People to afford Me a Support proportioned to the Importance of the Interests which We have to maintain.

Then the Lord Chancellor, by His Majesty's Command, said;

My Lords, and Gentlemen,

It is His Majesty's Command, That the Proclamation declaring His Majesty's most gracious Intention that the Members of Parliament composing this Parliament should be the Members of the Parliament of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, on the Part of Great Britain, and that the said Parliament should be assembled on the 22d Day of January next, be delivered in full Parliament, and now read, which closes the present Session.

A PROCLAMATION,

That no Ensign or Colours shall be borne at Sea, in Merchant Ships or Vessels belonging to any of His Majesty's Subjects of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, and the Dominions thereunto belonging.

GEORGE R.

WHEREAS, by the First Article of the Articles of Union of the Kingdoms of Great Britain and Ireland, as the same have been ratified and confirmed by Two Acts of Parliament, the one made in Our Parliament of Great Britain, and the other in Our Parliament of Ireland, it was provided that the Ensigns Armorial, Flags, and Banners of Our United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland should be such as We should appoint by Our Royal Proclamation under the Great Seal of Our said United Kingdom: And whereas We have, by Our Royal Proclamation dated this Day, appointed and declared that the Arms, or Ensigns Armorial of the said United Kingdom, should be as therein expressed: And whereas, according to ancient Usage, the Ensigns, Flags, Jacks, and Pendants worn by Our Ships, and appointed as a Distinction for the same, ought not to be worn on board any Ship or Vessel belonging to any of Our Subjects, so that Our Ships, and those of Our Subjects, may be easily distinguished and known, We have, therefore, thought fit, by and with the Advice of Our Privy Council, to order and appoint the Ensign described on the Side or Margin

hereof to be worn on board all Ships or Vessels belonging to any of Our Subjects whatsoever, and to illuse this Our Royal Proclamation to notify the same to all Our loving Subjects, hereby strictly charging and commanding the Masters of all Merchant Ships and Vessels belonging to any of Our Subjects, whether employed in Our Service or otherwise, and all other Persons whom it may concern, to wear the said Ensign on board their Ships or Vessels: And to the End that none of Our Subjects may presume, on board their Ships, to wear Our Flags, Jacks, and Pendants, which, according to ancient Usage, have been appointed as a Distinction to Our Ships, or any Flags, Jacks, or Pendants in Shape and Mixture of Colours so far resembling Ours as not to be easily distinguished therefrom, We do, with the Advice of Our Privy Council, hereby strictly charge and command all Our Subjects whatsoever, that they do not presume to wear in any of their Ships or Vessels, Our Jack, commonly called the Union Jack, nor any Pendant, nor any such Colours as are usually borne by Our Ships, without particular Warrant for their so doing from Us, or Our High Admiral of Great Britain, or the Commissioners for executing the Office of High Admiral for the Time being: And We do hereby also further command all Our loving Subjects, that without such Warrant as aforesaid, they presume not to wear on board their Ships or Vessels any Flags, Jacks, Pendants, or Colours, made in Imitation of, or resembling Ours, or any Kind of Pendant whatsoever, or any other Ensign than the Ensign described on the Side or Margin hereof, which shall be worn instead of the Ensign before this Time usually worn in Merchant Ships; saving that for the better Distinction of such Ships as shall have Commissions of Letters of Mart or Reprisals against the Enemy, and any other Ships or Vessels which may be employed by the principal Officers and Commissioners of Our Navy, the principal Officers of Our Ordnance, the Commissioners for Victualling Our Navy, the Commissioners for Our Customs and Excise, and the Commissioners for Transportation for Our Service relating particularly to those Officers, Our Royal Will and Pleasure is, that all such Ships as have Commissions of Letters of Mart or Reprisals shall, besides the Colours or Ensign hereby appointed to be worn by Merchant Ships, wear a Red Jack with a Union Jack described in a Canton at the upper Corner thereof, next the Staff; and that such Ships and Vessels as shall be employed for Our Service by the principal Officers and Commissioners of Our Navy, the principal Officers of Our Ordnance, the Commissioners for Victualling Our Navy, the Commissioners for Our Customs and Excise, and the Commissioners for Transportation for Our Service relating particularly to those Officers, shall wear a Red Jack with a Union Jack in a Canton at the upper Corner thereof, next the Staff as aforesaid, and in the other Part of the said Jack shall be described the Seal used in such of the respective Offices aforesaid by which the said Ships and Vessels shall be employed: And We do strictly charge and command that none of Our loving Subjects do presume to wear any of the said Distinction-Jacks, unless they shall have Commissions of Letters of Mart or Reprisals, or be employed in Our Service by any of the before mentioned Officers: And We hereby require Our High Admiral and Commissioners for executing the Office of High Admiral, the Governors of Our Ports and Castles, the Officers of Our Customs, and the Commanders or Officers of any of Our Ships, for the Time being, upon their meeting with or otherwise observing any Ships or Vessels belonging to any of Our Subjects, neglecting to wear the Ensign hereby appointed to be borne as aforesaid, or wearing any Flag, Pendant, Jack, or Ensign contrary hereto, whether at Sea or in Port, not only to seize, or cause to be forthwith seized, such Flag, Pendant, Jack, or Ensign, worn contrary to Our Royal Will and Pleasure herein expressed, but also to return the Names of such Ships and Vessels neglecting to wear the Ensign hereby appointed, or wearing any Flag, Pendant, Jack, or Ensign, contrary hereto, together with the Names of their respective Masters or Commanders unto Our High Admiral or Commissioners for executing the Office of High Admiral, or the Judge of Our High Court of Admiralty, for the Time being, to the End that all Persons offending may be duly punished for the same. And We do hereby command and enjoin the Judge and Judges of Our High Court of Admiralty for the Time being, that they make strict Inquiry concerning all such Offenders, and cause them to be duly punished; and all Vice-Admirals and Judges of the Vice-Admiralties, are hereby also required to proceed in the like Manner, within the several Ports and Places belonging to their respective Precincts. And Our further Pleasure is, that this Proclamation shall take Place according to the Times hereafter mentioned; viz. licet, For all Ships in the Channel or British Seas, and in the North Seas, after Twelve Days from the Date of these Presents; and from the Mouth of the Channel unto Cape St. Vincent, after Six Weeks from the Date of these Presents; and beyond the Cape, and on this Side the Equinoctial Line, as well in the Ocean and Mediterranean as elsewhere, after Ten Weeks from the Date of these Presents; and beyond the Line after the Space of Eight Months from the Date of these Presents.

For a General FAST.

GEORGE R.

WE, taking into Our most serious Consideration the heavy Judgments with which Almighty God is pleased to visit the Iniquities of this Land, by a grievous Scarcity and Dearth of divers Articles of Necessaries and Necessaries of Life; moreover taking into Our most serious Consideration the just and necessary War in which We are engaged, for the Maintenance of the Independence of Our Crown, for the Defence of the Commerce, and of the Rights and Liberties, Civil and Religious, of Our Subjects; and trusting in the Mercy of Almighty God, that notwithstanding the sore Punishment which He hath laid upon Us and upon Our People, He will, if We turn to Him in due Contrition and Penitence of Heart, not only withdraw His afflicting Hand, but moreover graciously bless Our Arms, both by Sea and Land, have therefore resolved, and do, by and with the Advice of Our Privy Council, hereby command, That a Public Fast and Humiliation be observed throughout those Parts of our United Kingdom called England and Ireland, on Friday the Thirtieth Day of February next; that so both We and Our People may humble Ourselves before Almighty God, in order to obtain Pardon of Our Sins; and may, in the most devout and solemn Manner, send up Our Prayers and Supplications to the Divine Majesty, for the Removal of those heavy Judgments which Our manifold Sins and Provocations have most justly deserved, and under which We at this present Time labour; and for imploring His Blessing and Assistance on Our Arms, and for restoring and perpetuating Peace, Safety, and Prosperity, to Us and Our Dominions: And We do strictly charge and command, That the said Public Fast be reverently and devoutly observed by all Our loving Subjects in England and Ireland, as they tender the Favor of Almighty God, and would avoid His Wrath and Indignation; and upon Pain of such Punishment as We may justly inflict on all such as contemn and neglect the Performance of so religious and necessary a Duty. # A PROCLAMATION,

Declaring what Ensign or Colours shall be borne at Sea, in Merchant Ships or Vessels belonging to any of His Majesty's Subjects of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, and the Dominions thereunto belonging.

GEORGE R.

WHEREAS, by the First Article of the Articles of Union of the Kingdoms of Great Britain and Ireland, as the same have been ratified and confirmed by Two Acts of Parliament, the one made in Our Parliament of Great Britain, and the other in Our Parliament of Ireland, it was provided that the Ensigns Armorial, Flags, and Banners of Our United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland should be such as We should appoint by Our Royal Proclamation under the Great Seal of Our said United Kingdom: And whereas We have, by Our Royal Proclamation dated this Day, appointed and declared that the Arms, or Ensigns Armorial of the said United Kingdom, should be as therein-expressed: And whereas, according to ancient Usage, the Ensigns, Flags, Jacks, and Pennants worn by Our Ships, and appointed as a Distinction for the same, ought not to be worn on board any Ship or Vessel belonging to any of Our

Subjects, so that Our Ships, and those of Our Subjects, may be easily distinguished and known, We have, therefore, thought fit, by and with the Advice of Our Privy Council, to order and appoint the Ensign described on the Side or Margin

hereof to be worn on board all Ships or Vessels belonging to any of Our Subjects whatsoever, and to issue this Our Royal Proclamation to notify the same to all Our loving Subjects, hereby strictly charging and commanding the Masters of all Merchant Ships and Vessels belonging to any of Our Subjects, whether employed in Our Service or otherwise, and all other Persons whom it may concern, to wear the said Ensign on board their Ships or Vessels: And to the End that none of Our Subjects may presume, on board their Ships, to wear Our Flags, Jacks, and Pendants, which, according to ancient Usage, have been appointed as a Distinction to Our Ships, or any Flags, Jacks, or Pendants in Shape and Mixture of Colours so far resembling Ours as not to be easily distinguished therefrom, We do, with the Advice of Our Privy Council, hereby strictly charge and command all Our Subjects whatsoever, that they do not presume to wear in any of their Ships or Vessels, Our Jack, commonly called the Union Jack, nor any Pendants, nor any such Colours as are usually borne by Our Ships, without particular Warrant for their so doing from Us, or Our High Admiral of Great Britain, or the Commissioners for executing the Office of High Admiral for the Time being: And We do hereby also further command all Our loving Subjects, that without such Warrant as aforesaid, they presume not to wear on board their Ships or Vessels any Flags, Jacks, Pendants, or Colours, made in Imitation of, or resembling Ours, or any Kind of Pendant whatsoever, or any other Ensign than the Ensign described on the Side or Margin hereof, which shall be worn instead of the Ensign before this Time usually worn in Merchant Ships; saving that for the better Distinction of such Ships as shall have Commissions of Letters of Mart or Repairs against the Enemy, and any other Ships or Vessels which may be employed by the principal Officers and Commissioners of Our Navy, the principal Officers of Our Ordnance, the Commissioners for Victualling Our Navy, the Commissioners for

Customs and Excise, and the Commissioners for Transportation for Our Service relating particularly to those Offices, Our Royal Will and Pleasure is, that all such Ships as have Commissions of Letters of Mart or Repairs shall, besides the Colours or Ensign hereby appointed to be worn by Merchant Ships, wear a Red Jack with a Union Jack described in a Canton at the upper Corner thereof, next the Staff; and that such Ships and Vessels as shall be employed for Our Service by the principal Officers and Commissioners of Our Navy, the principal Officers of Our Ordnance, the Commissioners for Victualling Our Navy, the Commissioners for Our Customs and Excise, and the Commissioners for Transportation for Our Service relating particularly to those Offices, shall wear a Red Jack with a Union Jack in a Canton at the upper Corner thereof, next the Staff as aforesaid, and in the other Part of the said Jack shall be described the Seal used in such of the respective Offices aforesaid by which the said Ships and Vessels shall be employed: And We do strictly charge and command that none of Our loving Subjects do presume to wear any of the said Distinction-Jacks, unless they shall have Commissions of Letters of Mart or Repairs, or be employed in Our Service by any of the before-mentioned Officers: And We hereby require Our High Admiral and Commissioners for executing the Office of High Admiral, the Governors of Our Ports and Calles, the Officers of Our Customs, and the Commanders or Officers of any of Our Ships, for the Time being, upon their meeting with or otherwise observing any Ships or Vessels belonging to any of Our Subjects, neglecting to wear the Ensign hereby appointed to be borne as aforesaid, or wearing any Flag, Pendant, Jack, or Ensign contrary hereunto, whether at Sea or in Port, not only to seize, or cause to be forthwith seized, such Flag, Pendant, Jack, or Ensign, worn contrary to Our Royal Will and Pleasure herein expressed, but also to return the Names of such Ships and Vessels neglecting to wear the Ensign hereby appointed, or wearing any Flag, Pendant, Jack, or Ensign, contrary hereunto, together with the Names of their respective Masters or Commanders unto Our High Admiral or Commissioners for executing the Office of High Admiral, or the Judge of Our High Court of Admiralty, for the Time being, to the End that all Persons offending may be duly punished for the same. And We do hereby command and enjoin the Judge and Judges of Our High Court of Admiralty for the Time being, that they make strict Inquiry concerning all such Offenders, and cause them to be duly punished; and all Vice-Admirals and Judges of the Vice-Admiralties, are hereby also required to proceed in the like Manner, within the several Ports and Places belonging to their respective Precincts. And Our further Pleasure is, that this Proclamation shall take Place according to the Times hereafter mentioned; videlicet, For all Ships in the Channel or British Seas, and in the North-Seas, after Twelve Days from the Date of these Presents; and from the Mouth of the Channel unto Cape St. Vincent, after Six Weeks from the Date of these Presents; and beyond the Cape, and on this Side the Equinoctial Line, as well in the Ocean and Mediterranean as elsewhere, after Ten Weeks from the Date of these Presents; and beyond the Line after the

Whereas it has been humbly represented to the King, that an anonymous threatening Letter has been sent to Lady Glynné, of Farmcot, Bridgnorth, of which the following is a Copy, viz.

We wrote to you sometime ago desiring you to compell your Tenants to sell Corn out to the Poor at a lower price no notice ar been taken of our letter but laughd at by your Tenants mentioned in the letter, you shall soon see whether or not our threats are put in execution, as well as several other's that we wrote to—The building mention'd in our first letter would by this time have been burnt to the ground but our recit for combustible was not a good one it mis'd but one we have now will not miss you may depend upon it—The time is not far off when most of the Farmers and Millars shall suffer part of them we will cut off their Ears and slit their Noses to the Bone as a mark that the country may know them and those mentin'd in our letter shall hang as we have describ'd.—When we can all settle it to meet together we do not fear the Solders sent to keep peace three parts out of four have sworn to join us when they are sure we are a body sufficient to conquer and that we are already we only wait for orders from our leaders which are some of the first Gentlemen in the kingdom. we wrote to you by their direction and orders that you might save your life and buildings but now you have treated our warning with contempt you shall suffer with the rest, It was not for the sake of the Farmers occupying your Farms mention'd in our first letter that we wrote to you but for your sake only the Farmers mention'd are the worst of all Farmers—We have found out as great a rogue since we wrote to you before as the other we are informed of one Batch of the Grean House who has bought 200 Aers of Corn growing for 8s a strike and will not sell it 'till it is at 30s we are determind to have part with him before he is much older but if We cannot have our share we will burn it to the Ground that he may dam as well as we we are inform'd also of Wilson and Waldron of Bebridge Wilson of Arly and a Tonge of the Park who have thrashed 7 or 8 hundred strike and hid it in the chaff. We have distributed notes to Wolverhampton Dudley Stourbridge lie waste Brignorth to let our Friends know of the above person that they may know where to find Corn. out of all the Farmers for 15 Miles round W. Hampton we can only find 3 Good ones and those we will protect to our last drop of Blood and any Friends they shall wish. We hav in a letter drop'd let our Friends know who the are that they may be safe and we shall soon send them our pass word but if they expose it that any other may know it they will suffer with the rest.

"Coast of Coromandel to forward the Equipment of the Army which afterwards effected that glorious Achievement, which not only terminated in the Destruction of a most implacable Enemy, but, by which the Company also acquired a very large Addition of Territorial Revenue, the great Ability, Energy, Firmness, and Decision displayed by him during the whole of the Negotiation with the late Tippoo Sultan, and the able Manner in which the Subsidiary Treaty with the Rajah of Mysore was concluded :

"Resolved unanimously, That in Reward for such eminent Services, his Lordship be requested to accept an Annuity of 5000 l. to issue out of the Territorial Revenues in India for the Term of Twenty Years, provided the Company's exclusive Trade shall so long continue, and the Territorial Revenue shall so long remain in Possession of the Company, to commence from the 1st of September 1798, being the Day on which the beforementioned Treaty with the Subah of the Decan was concluded, and that the same be paid to his Lordship, his Executors, Administrators, or Assigns for the Term aforesaid."

His Maſteſty's Hired Cutter Nile,
SIR,
December 11, 1800.

I Have the Honor to inform you, that the Veſſels you ſignalled us to chase, on the 6th Inſtant, never came through the Paſſage, but rowed up along Shore again, and went under Fort Lomara;

I watched for them all Night, but in the Morning seeing them no more I left the Lurcher off the Morbihan, and proceeded to execute your farther Orders; on that Day I saw a Convoy consisting round Croisic of Fifteen or Sixteen Sail, but was in no Hury to chase, rather permitting them to get nearer to St. Gildas, and in the Evening stood out, and made the necessary Signals to Mr. Forbes: it fully answered my Expectations, as he being to windward turned them all, and they made for the Villain gull where I was; about Eight we took a small one and as the Battery of St. Jacques was hailing us, which I immediately manned and sent her with our own Boat along Shore, and by Four A. M. found ourselves in Possession of five more; this is all they could attempt, as the whole Coasts were then alarmed, and the Battery of Notre Dame at the Entrance of the River Peners, kept up so brisk a Fire as to send Three Shot through the last Vessel; but the Spirit of our People was such that they were determined to have her out, and luckily only one Man was slightly scratched with a Splinter; on joining the Lurcher in the Morning I found he had got Three more, making nine, the Particulars of which are expressed in the adjoined List; the Four largest are decked, and very capable of going to England, but the others cannot; since the 7th Mr. Forbes has been continually on the look-out, but not a single Vessel, I believe, has stirred since.

I have the Honor to be, &c. &c. &c.

GEORGE ARGLES.

Admiralty-Office, January 17, 1801.

Extract of a Letter from Captain Roxoley Bulteel, Commander of His Majesty's Ship Belliqueux, to Evan Nepean, Esq; dated at Rio Janeiro, the 24th August 1800.

ON Monday the 4th Day of August, soon after Daylight, Four Sail were discovered from the Mast-Head in the North West Quarter, and apparently fleeing about N. by E. At Seven A. M. they hauled their Wind, tacked, and stood towards us, upon which I bore down with the Whole of my Convoy: At Noon the Enemy perceived our Force, (which was greatly exaggerated in their Opinion by the warlike Appearance of the China Ships,) they bore up under a Press of Sail, and by Signal separated.

I stood for the largest Ship, and notwithstanding the light and baffling Winds, we came up with her, and after a few Chase Guns, and a partial Firing for about Ten Minutes, at Half past Five in the Afternoon (Tuesday) she struck her Colours, and proved to be the French Frigate La Concorde, of Forty-four Guns, Eighteen-Pounders, and Four Hundred and Forty-four Men, commanded by Citizen Jean François Landolphe, Capitaine de Vaisseau, and Chef de Division.

At Seven the same Evening, the French Frigate La Médée, of Thirty-six Guns, Twelve-Pounders, and Three Hundred and Fifteen Men, commanded by Citizen Daniel Coudein, struck her Colours to the Bombay Castle, Captain John Hamilton, and the Exeter, Captain Henry Meriton.

The above Frigates were of the Squadron which sailed from Rochefort the 6th Day of March 1799, and having committed great Depredations on the Coast of Africa, had refitted in the Rio de la Plata, and were now cruising on the Coast of Brazil.

La Franchise, of Forty-two Guns and Three Hundred and Eighty Men, commanded by Citizen Pierre Jurieu, escaped by throwing a Part of her Guns overboard, and also her Anchors, Boats, and Booms, and by Night coming on; as did also an American Schooner, their Prize, fitted as a Cruiser.

On this Occasion I hope their Lordships will permit me to bear Testimony of the Spirit of the Officers and Ship's Company of the Belliqueux; and I have peculiar Pleasure in mentioning the Zeal and Activity I have ever found in Mr. Ebdon, my First Lieutenant, to whom I only do Justice in recommending him to their Lordships' Notice and Favor.

Too much Praise cannot be given to the Captains, Officers, and Crews of the different Ships under my Convoy, for their ready Obedience to my Signals, and for the whole of their Conduct on that Day, particularly to Captains Hamilton and Meriton, who very gallantly pursued and captured the aforesaid Frigate, La Medée; and also to Captain Torin, of the Couetts, and Captain Spens, of the Neptune, who with great Alacrity pursued La Franchise, although they had not the good Fortune to come up with her, for the Reasons above assigned; and my best Thanks are due to the Whole of the Commanders of the Ships under my Convoy, for their Assistance in taking a Number of Prisoners on board their respective Ships.

We arrived at Rio Janeiro on Tuesday the 12th of August.

Admiralty-Office, January 17, 1801.

Extract of a Letter from Captain Robert Barton, Commander of His Majesty's Ship Concorde, to Evan Nepean, Esq; dated at Lisbon the 4th Instant.

DURING my Stay off the Bar of Oporto I captured the Spanish Privateer Lugger San Josef, alias Larcón, of Six Guns and Forty Men, out from Vigo, and had captured the Speedy Brig, one of our Convoy, and in an Hour more would have captured another, as she was within Hail when we saw her.

Whitehall, January 9, 1801.

The King has been pleased to grant unto Samuel Yate, of Ashford Court, in the County of Salop, Esq; His Royal Licence and Authority, that he and his Issue may, in Compliance with the last Will and Testament, as well as out grateful Respect to the Memory of Samuel Sprott, late of Ludlow, in the said County of Salop, Doctor of Physic, to whom he is become Heir Male, assume and take the Surname of Sprott, in Addition to, and use the same after his Surname of Yate:

And also to order, that His Majesty's said Confirmation and Declaration be registered in His College of Arms.

St. James's, January 14, 1801.

THE following Addresses have been presented to the King; which Addresses His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously:

To the KING.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Lord Provost, Magistrates, and Town-Council of Edinburgh, intreat your Majesty to receive our humble and sincere Congratulations on the final Accomplishment of a Legislative Union between your Kingdoms of Great Britain and Ireland; an Union which, after all the Prosperity diffused among your People, by your wise and paternal Government, your Majesty deigned to announce from the Throne as the happiest Event of your Reign.

We trust that the great Measure now carried into Execution will contribute, under the Favor of Divine Providence, to perpetuate and to extend the Blessings we already possess: We trust that it will secure the Tranquillity of the Empire, protect its Liberty, augment its Resources, and raise it, if possible, to a still more distinguished Rank among the civilized Nations of the World.

Approaching, as we have the Honor to do, your Majesty, in the Name of a City which was once the Capital of an independent Kingdom, but which has long enjoyed a more enviable Pre-eminence by sharing to amply in the general Prosperity of the British Empire, we anticipate with peculiar Satisfaction the Consequences of an Event destined to impart similar Advantages to our Sister Island. Nor can we form a more patriotic Wish for the Happiness of our fellow Subjects, than that Ireland may experience, in the Course of the Period which now so auspiciously opens, the same Accession of Wealth, of Industry, of Concord, and of Freedom, which Scotland has gained during the Century that is past.

That your Majesty may be long preserved to maintain the Privileges, and to watch over the Interests of a free, a happy, and a truly united People, is the fervent Prayer of your Majesty's most faithful and devoted Subjects, the Lord Provost, Magistrates, and Council of your City of Edinburgh in Council assembled.

Signed and sealed in our Presence, and by our Appointment, at Edinburgh, the Fifth Day of January, One thousand eight hundred and One.

Wm. Fettes, Provost.

[Presented by the Right Honorable Henry Dundas.]

Unto the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects the Provost, Magistrates, and Town-Council of your ancient Town of Stirling, beg Leave to congratulate your Majesty on the happy Union which has now taken place betwixt Great Britain and Ireland.

We hope that the Bonds of Amity which have hitherto so long united these Nations will be thus rendered Indissoluble; and that, by the good Providence of the Almighty prospering the virtuous Exertions which have been made by your Majesty and your People, during the present long and arduous Contest, we shall be enabled to resist all the Efforts of our implacable Enemies, to frustrate their Attempts to disseminate their impious Principles, and to terminate the Whole in a firm, lasting, and honorable Peace.

We have great Satisfaction in mentioning the great Exertions which have been made in this Quarter to alleviate the present uncommon dearth of Provisions; and the Patience and Resignation with which Persons of all Ranks have met this severe Dispensation.

We cheerfully embrace this Opportunity of repeating our unfeigned Attachment to your Majesty's Person, Family, and Government, and our sincere Wishes that your Majesty may be long spared for a Blessing, not only to these Lands, but to the whole civilized World.

Signed in our Names, and by our Appointment, at Stirling, this Seventh Day of January, One Thousand eight hundred and one.

[Presented by the Right Honorable Henry Dundas.]

Whereas it has been humbly represented to the King, that an anonymous threatening Letter has been sent to Lady Glynn, of Farmcott, Bridgnorth, of which the following is a Copy, viz.

We wrote to you sometime ago desiring you to compell your Tenants to sell Corn out to the Poor at a lower price no notice as been taken of our letter but laugh'd at by your Tenants mention'd in the letter, you shall soon see whether or not our threats are put in execution, as well as several others, that we wrote to—The building mention'd in our first letter would by this time have been burnt to the ground but our reciet for combustible was not a good one it mis'd but one we have now will not mis if you may depend upon it—The time is not far off when most of the Farmers and Millars shall suffer part of them we will cut off their Ears and slit their Noses to the Bone as a mark that the Country may know them and those mentin'd in our letter shall hang as we have describ'd.—When we can all settle it to meet together we do not fear the Soldiers sent to keep peace three parts out of four have sworn to join us when they are sure we are a body sufficient to conquer and that we are already we only wait for orders from our leaders which are some of the first Gentlemen in the kingdom. we wrote to you by their direction and orders that you might save your life and buildings but now you have treated our warning with contempt you shall suffer with the rest, It was not for the sake of the Farmers occupying your Farms mention'd in our first letter that we wrote to you but for your sake only the Farmers mention'd are the worst of all Farmers—We have found out as great a rogue since we wrote to you before as the other we are informed of one Batch of the Grean House who has bought 200 Acres of Corn growing for 8s a strike and will not sell it 'till it is at 30s we are determin'd to have part with him before he is much older but if We cannot have our share we will burn it to the Ground that he may dam as well as we we are inform'd also of Wilson and Waldron of Bebridge Wilton of Arly and a Tonge of the Park who have thrashed 7 or 8 hunder strike and hid it in the chaff. We have distributed Notes to Wolverhampton Dudley Stourbridge lie waitte Brignorth to let our Friends know of the above person that they may know where to find Corn. out of all the Farmers for 15 Miles round W. Hampton we can only find 3 Good ones and those we will protect to our last drop of Blood and any Friends they shall wish. We hav in a letter dropt'd let our Friends know who the are that they may be safe and we shall soon send them our password but if they expose it that any other may know it they will suffer with the rest.

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to Justice the Persons concerned in writing and sending the said Letter, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious Pardon to any One of them, (except the Person who actually wrote the same,) who shall discover his or their Accomplice or Accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

either; and such Bond shall not be cancelled or delivered up, until Proof be made, to the Satisfaction of the said Commissioners, by the Production, within a Time to be fixed by the said Commissioners, and specified in the Bond, of a Certificate or Certificates, in such Form and Manner as shall be directed by the said Commissioners, shewing that the said Articles have been duly landed at the Places for which they were entered Outwards. And the Right Honorable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, the Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral of Great Britain, and the Lord Warden of the Cinque Ports, are to give the necessary Directions herein, as to them may respectively appertain. *W. ### A PROCLAMATION,

Declaring what Ensign or Colours shall be borne at Sea, in Merchant Ships or Vessels belonging to any of His Majesty's Subjects of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, and the Dominions therein belonging.

GEORGE R.

WHEREAS, by the First Article of the Articles of Union of the Kingdoms of Great Britain and Ireland, as the same have been ratified and confirmed by Two Acts of Parliament, the one made in Our Parliament of Great Britain, and the other in Our Parliament of Ireland, it was provided that the Ensigns Armorial, Flags, and Banners of Our United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland should be such as We should appoint by Our Royal Proclamation under the Great Seal of Our said United Kingdom: And whereas We have, by Our Royal Proclamation dated this Day, appointed and declared that the Arms, or Ensigns Armorial of the said United Kingdom, should be as therein-expressed: And whereas, according to ancient Usage, the Ensigns, Flags, Jacks, and Pendants worn by Our Ships, and appointed as a Distinction for the same, ought not to be worn on board any Ship or Vessel belonging to any of Our Subjects, so that Our Ships, and those of Our Subjects, may be easily distinguished and known, We have, therefore, thought fit, by and with the Advice of Our Privy Council, to order and appoint the Ensign described on the Side or Margin

hereof to be worn on board all Ships or Vessels belonging to any of Our Subjects whatsoever, and to issue this Our Royal Proclamation to notify the same to all Our loving Subjects, hereby strictly charging and commanding the Masters of all Merchant Ships and Vessels belonging to any of Our Subjects, whether employed in Our Service or otherwise, and all other Persons whom it may concern, to wear the said Ensign on board their Ships or Vessels: And to the End that none of Our Subjects may presume, on board their Ships, to wear Our Flags, Jacks, and Pendants, which, according to ancient Usage, have been appointed as a Distinction to Our Ships, or any Flags, Jacks, or Pendants in Shape and Mixture of Colours so far resembling Ours as not to be easily distinguished therefrom, We do, with the Advice of Our Privy Council, hereby strictly charge and command all Our Subjects whatsoever, that they do not presume to wear in any of their Ships or Vessels, Our Jack, commonly called the Union Jack, nor any Pendants, nor any such Colours as are usually borne by Our Ships, without particular Warrant for their so doing from Us, or Our High Admiral of Great Britain, or the Commissioners for executing the Office of High Admiral for the Time being: And We do hereby also further command all Our loving Subjects, that without such Warrant as aforesaid, they presume not to wear on board their Ships or Vessels any Flags, Jacks, Pendants, or Colours, made in Imitation of, or resembling Ours, or any Kind of Pendant whatsoever, or any other Ensign than the Ensign described on the Side or Margin hereof, which shall be worn instead of the Ensign before this Time usually worn in Merchant Ships; saying that for the better Distinction of such Ships as shall have Commissions of Letters of Mart or Reprisals against the Enemy, and any other Ships or Vessels which may be employed by the principal Officers and Commissioners of Our Navy, the principal Officers of Our Ordnance, the Commissioners for Victualling Our Navy, the Commissioners for Our Customs and Excise, and the Commissioners for Transportation for Our Service relating particularly to those Offices, Our Royal Will and Pleasure is, that all such Ships as have Commissions of Letters of Mart or Reprisals shall, besides the Colours or Ensign hereby appointed to be worn by Merchant Ships, wear a Red Jack with a Union Jack described in a Canton at the upper Corner thereof, next the Staff; and that such Ships and Vessels as shall be employed for Our Service by the principal Officers and Commissioners of Our Navy, the principal Officers of Our Ordnance, the Commissioners for Victualling Our Navy, the Commissioners for Our Customs and Excise, and the Commissioners for Transportation for Our Service relating particularly to those Offices, shall wear a Red Jack with a Union Jack in a Canton at the upper Corner thereof, next the Staff as aforesaid, and in the other Part of the said Jack shall be described the Seal used in such of the respective Offices aforesaid by which the said Ships and Vessels shall be employed: And We do strictly charge and command that none of Our loving Subjects do presume to wear any of the said Distinction-Jacks, unless they shall have Commissions of Letters of Mart or Reprisals, or be employed in Our Service by any of the before-mentioned Officers: And We hereby require Our High Admiral and Commissioners for executing the Office of High Admiral, the Governors of Our Forts and Castles, the Officers of Our Customs, and the Commanders or Officers of any of Our Ships, for the Time being, upon their meeting with or otherwise observing any Ships or Vessels belonging to any of Our Subjects, neglecting to wear the Ensign hereby appointed to be borne as aforesaid, or wearing any Flag, Pendant, Jack, or Ensign contrary hereunto, whether at Sea or in Port, not only to seize, or cause to be forthwith seized, such Flag, Pendant, Jack, or Ensign, worn contrary to Our Royal Will and Pleasure herein expressed, but also to return the Names of such Ships and Vessels neglecting to wear the Ensign hereby appointed, or wearing any Flag, Pendant, Jack, or Ensign, contrary hereunto, together with the Names of their respective Masters or Commanders unto Our High Admiral or Commissioners for executing the Office of High Admiral, or the Judge of Our High Court of Admiralty, for the Time being, to the End that all Persons offending may be duly punished for the same. And We do hereby command and enjoin the Judge and Judges of Our High Court of Admiralty for the Time being, that they make strict Inquiry concerning all such Offenders, and cause them to be duly punished; and all Vice-Admirals and Judges of the Vice-Admiralties, are hereby also required to proceed in the like Manner, within the several Ports and Places belonging to their respective Precincts. And Our further Pleasure is, that this Proclamation shall take Place according to the Times hereafter mentioned; viz. For all Ships in the Channel or British Seas, and in the North Seas, after Twelve Days from the Date of these Presents; and from the Mouth of the Channel unto Cape St. Vincent, after Six Weeks from the Date of these Presents; and beyond the Cape; and on this Side the Equinoctial Line, as well in the Ocean and Mediterranean as elsewhere, after Ten Weeks from the Date of these Presents; and beyond the Line after the Space of Eight Months from the Date of these Presents.

Given at Our Court at St. James's, the First Day of January One thousand eight hundred and one, in the Forty-first Year of Our Reign.

GOD save the KING.

SIR,

Enclose to you, for the Information of my Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, a Letter which I have received from Captain Wellbeach, of His Majesty's Sloop Favorite, giving an Account of his having captured, off Flamborough-Head, on the 15th Instant, a French Cutter Privateer called Le Voyageur, mounting Fourteen Guns, and had on board Forty-seven Men. SIR, Favourite, at Sea, Jan. 16, 1801.

I Beg Leave to acquaint you, that on the 15th Instant, being off Flamborough Head, I discovered at Nine A. M, a Cutter close in Shore, to which I immediately gave Chace; and am happy to acquaint you, that I had the Satisfaction to capture her after a Run of Seven Hours. She proves to be Le Voyageur Cutter Privateer of Dunkirk, mounting Fourteen Carriage Guns, named with Forty seven Men, commanded by Egide Colbert, had been out Four Days from Ostend, and had only captured the Canilla, in Ballast, belonging to Sunderland, the Day before.

I am, Sir, &c. &c. &c.

Whitehall, January 13, 1801.

Whereas it has been humbly represented to the King, that an anonymous threatening Letter has been sent to Lady Glynn, of Farncott, Bridgwater, of which the following is a Copy, viz.

We wrote to you sometime ago desiring you to compell your Tenants to sell Corn out to the Poor at a lower price no notice as been taken of our letter but laugh'd at by your Tenants mention'd in the letter, you shall soon see whether or not our threats are put in execution, as well as several others, that we wrote to—The building mention'd in our first letter would by this time have been burnt to the ground but our recit for combustible was not a good one it mis'd but one we have now will not miss you may depend upon it—The time is not far off when most of the Farmers and Millars shall suffer part of them we will cut off their Ears and slit their Noses to the Bone as a mark that the country may know them and those mention'd in our letter shall hang as we have describ'd.—When we can all settle it to meet together we do not fear the Soldiers sent to keep peace three parts out of four have sworn to join us when they are sure we are a body sufficient to conquer and that we are already we only wait for orders from our leaders which are some of the first Gentlemen in the kingdom. we wrote to you by their direction and orders that you might save your life and buildings but now you have treated our warning with contempt you shall suffer with the rest, It was not for the sake of the Farmers occupying your Farms mention'd in our first letter that we wrote to you but for your sake only the Farmers mention'd are the worst of all Farmers—We have found out as great a rogue since we wrote to you before as the other we are inform'd of one Batch of the Green House who has bought 200 Acres of Corn growing for 8s a strike and will not sell it 'till it is at 30s we are determin'd to have part with him before he is much older but if We cannot have our share we will burn it to the Ground that he may dam as well as we we are inform'd also of Willon and Waldron of Bebridge Wilson of Arly and a Tongue of the Park who have thras'd 7 or 8 hundred strike and hid it in the chaff. We have distributed Notes to Wolverhampton Dudley Stourbridge lie waste Brighnorth to let our Friends know of the above person that they may know where to find Corn out of all the Farmers for 15 Miles round W. Hampton we can only find 3 Good ones and those we will protect to our last drop of Blood and any Friends they shall wish. We have in a letter drop'd let our Friends know who the are that they may be safe and we shall soon send them our pass word but if they expose it that any other may know it they will suffer with the rest.

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to Justice the Persons concerned in writing and sending the said Letter, is hereby pleas'd to promise His most gracious Pardon to any One of them, (except the Person who actually wrote the same,) who shall discover his or their Accomplice or Accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

S I R,

I Have to acquaint you, for the Information of my Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, that I this Day captured La Venus French Lugger Privateer, of Fourteen Brass Carriage Guns, and Thirty-six Men. She sailed from Cherbourg Yesterday Evening, and had not made any Captures.

Copy of a Letter from Rear-Admiral Duckworth, Commander in Chief of His Majesty's Ships and Vessels at the Leeward Islands, to Mr. Nepean, dated Leviathan, Martinique, 27th October 1800.

S I R,

HAVING directed the Gipsy, of Ten Four Pounders and Forty-two Men, Tender, to the Leviathan under the Command of Lieutenant Coryndon Boger, to carry the Charlotte Merchant Ship (in which my late Captain, Carpenter, took his Passage), to the Northward of the Islands, I am to beg you will inform the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, that on the 7th Instant, in passing near Guadaloupe on the above Service, he chased and brought to Action a French Sloop of very superior Magnitude, and manned with Double his Number of select Troops of Guadaloupe. For the Particulars of this very handsome Contest I shall refer their Lordships to Lieutenant Boger's Letter; but I should not do Justice to His Majesty's Service, from the Knowledge I have of this valuable Officer's Character, and from the unanimous Voice of his Crew, if I did not say his modest Recital of his Gallantry does him as much Honor as the Action itself, and I flatter myself he will be honored with their Lordships' Protection.

I have the Honor to be, &c. &c. &c.

J. T. DUCKWORTH.

P. S. Since the concluding of the above I find Three more of the Wounded have died.

Gipsy, in St. John's Roads, October 8, 1800.

SIR, I Have the Honor to acquaint you, that at Eight A. M. off the North End of Guadaloupe, I chased and came up with an Armed Sloop; on firing a Shot at her the hoisted French Colours and returned it; an Action instantly commenced; we remained at very close Quarters for an Hour and an Half, when, finding that her Mulketry did us considerable Damage, I hauled a little farther off and kept up a sharp Fire of Round and Grape: At half past Ten I had the Satisfaction to see her strike; she proves to be Le Quiproquo, commanded by Tourpis, formerly a Capitaine de Frigate in the Service of the King, and was charged with Dispatches from Curacao bound to Guadaloupe; she mounts Eight Guns Six and Nine-Pounders, and had on board Ninety-eight Men, Eighty of whom were Guadaloupe Chafflans and Cannoners: I am sorry to add that our Loss is considerable, having had one Killed and Eleven Wounded; among the latter I include Mr. Clarke and myself. Finding it necessary to get Medical Assistance as soon as possible I put into this Port, and have got all the Wounded into an Hospital. The Loss on the Side of the Enemy was the Captain and Four killed and Eleven Wounded; both Vessels have suffered much in their Sails and Rigging, but I am happy to say His Majesty's Schooner has not suffered in her Hull. I cannot omit, Sir, mentioning the great Assistance I received from the Charlotte Merchant Ship under my Convoy, both in securing the Prisoners, and giving every Assistance to the Wounded that lay in their Power.

The Petty Officers and Men who did me the Honor to place under my Command, behaved extremely well on the Occasion.

I am sorry to add that Two Men have since died of their Wounds.

I have the Honor to be, &c. &c. &c.

CORYNDON BOGER.

We have distributed Notes to Wolverhampton Dudley Stourbridge life walle Brighthelm to let our Friends know of the above person that they may know where to find Corn out of all the Farmers for 15 Miles round W. Westminster, February 2, 1801.

THIS Day His Majesty came to the House of Peers, and being in His Royal Robes, seated on the Throne with the usual Solemnity, Sir Francis Molyneux, Gentleman Usher of the Black Rod, was sent with a Message from His Majesty to the House of Commons, commanding their Attendance in the House of Peers. The Commons being come thither accordingly, His Majesty was pleased to make the following most gracious Speech :

My Lords, and Gentlemen,

At a Crisis so important to the Interests of My People, I derive great Satisfaction from being enabled, for the first Time, to avail Myself of the Advice and Assistance of the Parliament of My United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

This memorable Era, distinguished by the Accomplishment of a Measure calculated to augment and consolidate the Strength and Resources of the Empire, and to cement more closely the Interests and Affections of My Subjects, will, I trust, be equally marked by that Vigor, Energy, and Firmness, which the Circumstances of Our present Situation peculiarly require.

The unfortunate Course of Events on the Continent, and the Consequences which must be expected to result from it, cannot fail to be Matter of Anxiety and Concern to all who have a just Feeling for the Security and Independence of Europe.

Your Astonishment, as well as your Regret, must be excited by the Conduct of those Powers whose Attention, at such a Period, appears to be more engaged in Endeavours to weaken the Naval Force of the British Empire, which has hitherto opposed so powerful an Obstacle to the inordinate Ambition of France, than in concerting the Means of mutual Defence against their common and increasing Danger.

The Representations which I directed to be made to the Court of Petersburg, in consequence of the Outrages committed against the Ships, Property, and Persons of My Subjects, have been treated with the utmost Disrespect; and the Proceedings of which I complained have been aggravated by subsequent Acts of Injustice and Violence.

Under these Circumstances a Convention has been concluded by that Court with those of Copenhagen and Stockholm, the Object of which, as avowed by One of the Contracting Parties, is to renew their former Engagements for establishing by Force a new Code of Maritime Law, inconsistent with the Rights and hostile to the Interests of this Country.

In this Situation, I could not hesitate as to the Conduct which it became Me to pursue. I have taken the earliest Measures to repel the Aggressions of this hostile Confederacy, and to support those Principles which are essential to the Maintenance of Our Naval Strength, and which are grounded on the System of Public Law, so long established and recognized in Europe.

I have, at the same Time, given such Assurances as manifest My Disposition to renew My antient Relations with those Powers, whenever it can be done consistently with the Honor of My Crown, and with a just Regard to the Safety of My Subjects. You will, I am persuaded, omit nothing on your Part, that can afford Me the most vigorous and effectual Support in My firm Determination to maintain to the utmost, against every Attack, the Naval Rights and the Interests of My Empire.

Gentlemen of the House of Commons,

I have directed the Estimates for the several Branches of the Public Service to be laid before you: Deeply as I lament the continued Necessity of adding to the Burdens of My People, I am persuaded you will feel with Me the Importance of providing effectual Means for those Exertions which are indispensably requisite for the Honor and Security of the Country.

My Lords, and Gentlemen,

I am confident that your Deliberations will be uniformly directed to the great Object of improving the Benefits of that happy Union, which, by the Blessing of Providence, has now been effected; and of promoting, to the utmost, the Prosperity of every Part of My Dominions.

You will, I doubt not, resume the Enquiries which were so diligently prosecuted in the last Session of Parliament, as to the best Means of relieving My Subjects from the Pressure of the present high Price of Provisions; and of preventing, as far as it can be done by human Foresight, the Recurrence of similar Difficulties. In these Endeavours, and in every Measure that can contribute to the Happiness of My People, the great End of all My Wishes, you may be assured of My cordial Concurrence.

You may rely on My availing Myself of the earliest Opportunity which shall afford a Prospect of terminating the present Contest, on Grounds consistent with Our Security and Honor, and with the Maintenance of those essential Rights on which Our Naval Strength must always principally depend.

It will afford Me the truest and most heartfelt Satisfaction whenever the Disposition of Our Enemies shall enable Me thus to restore to the Subjects of My United Kingdom the Blessings of Peace, and thereby confirm and augment those Advantages which result from Our internal Situation, and which, even under all the Difficulties of War, have carried to so great an Extent the Agriculture, Manufactures, Commerce, and Revenue of the Country.

At the Court at St. James's, the 21st Day of January 1801,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS His Majesty was graciously pleased, by His Royal Proclamation bearing Date the Twenty-sixth Day of December, One thousand seven hundred and ninety-two, to promise and declare, that the Bounties of Five Pounds for every Able Seaman, and Two Pounds Ten Shillings for every Ordinary Seaman, fit for His Majesty's Service, should be paid in the Manner thereby directed to every such Able and Ordinary Seaman, not above the Age of Fifty nor under the Age of Twenty Years, who should, on or before the Twenty-eighth Day of February then following, enter themselves to serve in His Majesty's Royal Navy, either with the Captains or Lieutenants of His Majesty's Ships or Vessels, or Officers employed on Shore for raising Men for the Service of the Royal Navy: And whereas His Majesty was also graciously pleased, by His said Proclamation, to declare, that all Able-bodied Landmen, not above the Age of Thirty-five nor under the Age of Twenty Years, who should so enter themselves as aforesaid, should receive the Sum of Thirty Shillings each Man, as His Majesty's Royal Bounty: And whereas His Majesty was also graciously pleased, by His Royal Proclamation bearing Date the Sixteenth Day of the said Month of February, One thousand seven hundred and ninety-three, to promise and declare, that a Reward of Twenty Shillings for every Able and Ordinary Seaman fit to serve on board His Majesty's Ships, should be paid to any Person who should discover any Seaman or Seamen who might conceal him or themselves, so that such Seaman or Seamen should be taken for His Majesty's Service, on or before the Thirtieth Day of April then next, by any of His Majesty's Sea Officers appointed to raise Men on Shore, or by the Captains or Commanders of any of His Majesty's Ships or Vessels in the Ports, or on the Coasts of this Kingdom: And whereas the Time limited by the said Proclamations for Payment of the said Bounties and Reward hath been prolonged and extended to the Thirty-first Day of this instant January; and it being judged expedient for His Majesty's Service that the said Bounties and Reward should be continued to be paid for some Time longer, His Majesty, with the Advice of His Privy Council, doth therefore order, and it is hereby accordingly ordered, that the Time limited for Payment of the said Bounties and Reward be prolonged and extended from the said Thirty-first Day of this instant January to the Thirtieth Day of April One thousand eight hundred and one, inclusive: Whereof all Persons concerned are to take Notice, and govern themselves accordingly.

And His Majesty is hereby further pleased to order, that all Goods which have been imported into this Country in Russian, Danish, or Swedish Vessels without Licence under His Majesty's Sign Manual, and which are now detained by the Embargo, shall likewise be delivered to the Owners or their Agents, on Affidavit being made that such Goods were not at the Time of Shipment, nor are now, the Property of Subjects of Russia, Denmark, or Sweden; and on their giving sufficient Bail to abide Adjudication, if any Proceedings should be commenced against the said Goods within Two Months from the Date of such Delivery; but in case no such Proceedings should be commenced within Two Months from the Date of such Delivery, then the Bond so given to be void:—And the Right Honorable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, and the Judge of the High Court of Admiralty, are to give the necessary Directions herein as to them may respectively appear.

Admiralty-Office, February 7, 1801.

Copy of a Letter from Vice Admiral Lord Hugh Seymour, Commander in Chief of His Majesty's Ships and Vessels at Jamaica, to Evan Nepean, Esq; dated the 21st December 1800.

SIR,

I Beg you will lay before the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, the enclosed Copy of a Letter which I Yesterday received from Captain Hallett, of His Majesty's Ship Apollo.

I am, Sir, &c. &c. &c.

H. SEYMOUR.

His Majesty's Ship Apollo,
December 1800.

MY LORD,

AT Noon, on the 10th Ultimo, in the Gulf of Mexico, in Latitude 21 Deg. North, we gave Chase to a Ketch to Windward of us, but soon after discovering a Brig directly in the Wind's Eye, we chased her, and at Two in the Morning, got up and took Possession of the Revolution Spanish Sloop of War of Eighteen Guns and One Hundred and Forty-nine Men, commanded by Don Francisco Canichens, (formerly the Revolution Cutter in the British Navy,) she sailed from Vera Cruz Three Days before.

As soon as her Crew were removed to this Ship, we made all sail, and an Hour after Daybreak got Sight again of the Xebec, and captured her at Three o'Clock in the Afternoon; she is from Vera Cruz, and was bound to the Havanna.

The Resolution was in general towed by us until the 27th Ultimo, when her Main-Mast went by the board; an Attempt was made to rise her, but her Rigging and Sails being perfectly rotten and every Thing belonging to her in such a miserable Condition, it was necessary to destroy her.

On the 28th Instant, off Porcillo, in the Island of Cuba, we recaptured the Schooner St. Joseph.

I am, my Lord, &c. &c. &c.

P. HALKETT.

Right Hon. Lord Hugh Seymour,
Esq. &c. &c.

Extract of a Letter from the Earl of St. Vincent, K. B. Admiral of the White, &c. to Brian Nepean, Esq; dated Tobray, the 3d Instant.

SIR,

THIS Majesty's Ship Oiseau is this Instant arrived, and I enclose a Letter from Captain Linzee, giving an Account of the Capture of La Dedaigueuse French Frigate.

His Majesty's Ship L'Oiseau, Tobray, Feb. 3, 1801.

MY LORD,

I Have the Honor to acquaint your Lordship that on Monday the 26th of January at Eight A. M. in Lat. 45 Deg. North, Long. 12 Deg.

West, I fell in with the French National Frigate La Dedaigneuse of Thirty-Six Guns and Three Hundred Men, with Dispatches from Cayenne for Rochfort, and chased her until Noon the following Day; when I discovered His Majesty's Ships Sirius and Amethyst, off Cape Finisterre, whose Captains I directed by Signal to chase, and continued in Pursuit of the Enemy until Two o'Clock on Wednesday Morning, being within Musket Shot, she opened her Fire on the Sirius and Oiseau, which was immediately returned, and surrendered to the above Ships after an Action of Forty five Minutes, distant from the Shore, near Cape Belem, about Two Miles; her running Rigging and Sails were cut in Pieces; several Men killed and Seventeen wounded, amongst the latter were the Captain and Fifth Lieutenant. My warmest Thanks are due to Captains King and Cooke for their Exertions, but particularly to the former, as from the Sirius's steady and well-directed Fire, the Enemy received considerable Damage; the Amethyst, from unfavourable Winds, was unable to get up until she had struck. I am happy to say, notwithstanding the gallant Resistance made by the Dedaigneuse, neither of the Ships lost a Man; the Sirius's Rigging and Sails were a little damaged, her Main-Yard and Bow-sprit slightly wounded. I cannot conclude without expressing my Approbation of the Officers and Company of His Majesty's Ship under my Command, and in Justice to them, must add, their Anxiety to close with the Enemy, on first discovering her, was equal to what it was on becoming so superior; and must further beg to acknowledge the very great Assistance I received from Mr. H. Lloyd my First Lieutenant, during a long and anxious Chase of Forty-two Hours; I trust your Lordship will be pleased to recommend him to the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty as a most valuable Officer and deserving of their Attention; on his Account most sincerely do I lament the baffling Winds that prevented my bringing the Enemy to Action on the preceding Day, which I was several Times in Expectation of doing. La Dedaigneuse is a perfect new Frigate, Copper fastened, and sails well, carries Twenty-eight Twelve-Pounders on her Main Deck, and pierced for Forty Guns. I have given the Prize in Charge of my First Lieutenant with Directions to proceed to Plymouth; and have also to acquaint your Lordship of my having detained, on the 1st Instant, the Swedish Ship Hosninga, from Valentia bound to Altona, laden with Brandy, Burthen Two Hundred and Sixty Tons.

I have the Honor to be, &c. &c. &c.

S. H. LINZEE.

*The Earl of St. Vincent, K. B.

THIS Day the Right Honorable the Lord Mayor, the Aldermen, Sheriffs, and Common-Council of the City of London, waited upon His Majesty, (being introduced to His Majesty by the Lord in Waiting,) with the following Address, which was read by Sir John William Rose, the Recorder.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Lord Mayor, Aldermen, and Commons of the City of London, in Common Council assembled.

Most Gracious Sir,

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Lord Mayor, Aldermen, and Commons of the City of London, in Common Council assembled, approach the Throne with the liveliest Sentiments of Congratulation on the very Important Event of the Legislative Union of your Majesty's Kingdoms of Great Britain and Ireland.

Unshaken as we are, in our firm Allegiance to the best of Kings, we contemplate with peculiar Satisfaction every Circumstance, which, in its Design or Operation can tend to the Security and Honour of your Majesty's Crown, and thereby to the declared first Object of your Majesty's Heart—the Welfare and Prosperity of your People.

The Accomplishment of this great Measure, founded in Wisdom, and demonstrative of that paternal Regard which your Majesty has ever evinced for every Class of your Subjects, the Union of the Two Kingdoms, particularly affords, at this momentous Crisis of public Affairs, the gratifying Prospect of consolidating the joint Interests, Energy, and Resources of the Empire, and of confirming, by a mutual Participation of the peculiar Blessings of each, the Prosperity and Happiness of both Kingdoms.

Long may your Majesty wear the Diadem, which, through unexampled Difficulties, has maintained its Dignity and preserved its Lustre; and long may the Subjects of your United Empire, with one Heart and one Voice confess with Gratitude the Loyalty and Veneration due to a Sovereign whose Honour must be their Pride, and on whose Security is engraven their immediate Welfare; and may the most complete Success under Providence crown their Determinations to subdue your Majesty's Enemies, wherever they may be found.

Signed by Order of Court,

WILLIAM RIX.

To which Address His Majesty was pleased to return the following most gracious Answer:

I Thank you for this dutiful and loyal Address, and for your warm Congratulations on the Union of the Two Kingdoms of Great Britain and Ireland, an Event which, I trust, cannot fail, under the Blessing of Providence, to augment and perpetuate the Welfare and Happiness of all My People.

Your affectionate Expressions of Attachment to My Person and Government, and your steady Determination to maintain against every Aggression the Security and Honor of My Crown, are highly acceptable to Me, and secure to My faithful City of London My constant Favor and Protection.

They were all received very graciously, and had the Honor to kiss His Majesty's Hand.

St. James's, February 11, 1801.

THE following Address having been transmitted to the Duke of Portland, His Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department, has been by his Grace presented to the King; which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously:

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the several Warranted Lodges of the Most Ancient and Honorable Fraternity of Free and Accepted Masons according to the Old Institutions, in the Island of Barbadoes.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Masters, Wardens, and Brethren of the several Warranted Lodges undermentioned of Free and Accepted Masons, according to the Old Institutions, in the Island of Barbadoes, most humbly request Permission to offer, at the Foot of your Throne, the warmest Congratulations of our Hearts on your providential Deliverance from the late atrocious Attempt on your most sacred and invaluable Life. When we reflect on the Perils to which your Majesty has from Time to Time been exposed, our Minds are filled with Gratitude to Heaven for your almost miraculous Preservation from them: We felicitate ourselves on being Subjects of a King whom the Almighty appears to have taken, in a special Manner, under his Divine Protection; and through whose Virtues we therefore hope that, amidst the Convulsions which agitate surrounding Nations, the British Throne and Government may still remain unshaken, and transmit to distant Ages the Blessings which your Majesty's Subjects enjoy above all other People in the World. We are happy in finding that the Wisdom of Parliament has left to Lodges of real Free Masons the Liberty of continuing to meet, whilst, at the same Time, it has thought proper to guard against the Abuses which might possibly be committed by false Pretenders to that Name assembling, without having ever been acknowledged as Free Masons, much less authorised to act as such by a Grand Lodge:—for we most humbly beg Leave to assure your Majesty, that genuine Free Masons cannot, in their Lodges, conspire against the State, they having from Time immemorial been strictly charged never to suffer any political Disquisition in a Lodge, but, as Masons, always to be peaceable Subjects of the Government.

under which they live. That the Supreme Disposer of all Events may be graciously pleased to grant to your Majesty a long Continuance of Life and Health, together with the further Blessing, that the Years yet to come of your most auspicious Reign may be attended with that Tranquillity, of which, from foreign and civil Commotions, too many of the past have unhappily been deprived, is our sincere Wish and fervent Prayer.

Signed, by Desire of the respective Lodges under-mentioned, at the Temple in Bridge-Town, the 48th Day of October 1800, and in the Year of Masonry 5800.

Copy of a Letter from Captain William Hills, of His Majesty's Ship Orpheus, dated La Copong, the Streights of Banca, the 25th October, 1799.

SIR,

I Have the Pleasure to inform you, that on my Passage from Ternate to the Streights of Banca, I Yesterday discovered two Sail off Tagolanda, which I chased at One P. M., at Three it fell calm, all the Boats were hoisted out to tow the Ship, and every Exertion made to get up with them. On a Breeze springing up at Five o'Clock, we cast off all our Boats, but was not able to get alongside of them until a Quarter before Nine o'Clock, when we brought them to a close Action on each Bow, which continued about a Quarter of an Hour, when they both struck their Colours. They proved the Zeevraught and Zeelast, the one a Brig and the other a large Panchallang, each mounting Twenty-two Guns, of different Calibres, from Macassar, loaded with Rice, Powder, Shot, Gun Carriages, and Stores from Ternate. The Vessels both belong to the Dutch East India Company.

During the Action I lost One of my best Seamen, killed in the Mainport, and Five wounded, among the latter is the First Lieutenant Hodgkins, who received a Musquet Ball through his right Arm; his Conduct on this, as on every other Occasion, has given me that Satisfaction that warrants my recommending him to your Notice and Attention. I had great Pleasure in observing the Zeal of all the Officers and Men on this Occasion, as I have done several other Times since my Arrival at these Islands, which justly entitled them to my Thanks. Enclosed I send you a List of the Killed and Wounded on board the Dutch Vessels.

I have, &c.

Extract of a Letter from Captain E. O. Osborne, of His Majesty's Ship Arrogant, to Vice-Admiral Rainier, Commander in Chief, &c. &c. dated on board His Majesty's Ship Arrogant, at Sea, the 26th of June 1800.

THE Difficulty of getting Water at Anjer Point, induced me to proceed to Mew Bay, where I arrived with the Orpheus, the 5th May.

The 7th of May we captured a small Ship, from the Isle of France, in Ballast, which was burnt.

May 16th, sailed with the Arrogant and Orpheus, from Mew Bay, and passing to the Northward of the Islands off Batavia, made the Land of Java, 16th May, near Point Indramago, and having Bumpkin Island in Sight at the same Time to the Eastward of Batavia; the same Day discovered a large Ship and a Brig at Anchor, to whom we gave Chase; and who, after having made some Signals to each other, made all Sail from us in for the Land. It was late in the Evening before we got near them, when discovered the Ship to be a Vessel of Force, and having several Guns on her lower Deck, and the Brig also mounting fourteen Guns; finding they could not Escape us, they both ran on Shore, at some Miles distant from each other, to the Westward of Point Indramago. We were soon within random Shot of the Ship, and anchored as near her as the Depth of Water would admit, when she began firing at us, which was returned by several Guns from each Deck. About this Time two Boats were observed going from her full of Men; and as it grew dark shortly after, some of our Boats were sent to prevent the Crew of the Ship from landing, and to summons her to surrender, which they could not do till the Morning; this I conclude was with the Design of destroying her, if they could have accomplished landing the Crew in the Night, but the Vigilance of our Boats prevented this taking Place, as her Boats were taken full of Men the first Time the Attempt was made. At Day break she surrendered, and was taken Possession of, when we found her to be the Hertzoy de Brunswick (Armed Ship), belonging to the Dutch East India Company, Jan Cornelius I name, Commanded, mounting twenty Guns on the upper Decks, and Eight Guns on the lower Deck, and manned with Three Hundred and Twenty Men, Part of whom had made their Escape on Shore.

At the Time the Boats were sent to prevent the Men from landing from the Ship, other Boats were sent under the Direction of Lieutenant Blayney, to board the Brig, which was some Miles distant from us. This Service he accomplished without Loss, and soon after brought her near us, when we found her to be the Dolphin Armed Brig, commanded by Jan Vauntyes, belonging to the Dutch East India Company, mounting Fourteen Guns, and having on board Sixty-five Men.

May 24th, at Day-break in the Morning, we captured, close under the Land, a small Armed Brig of Six Carriage Guns, and some Swivels, on a Cruise from Sumarang, which Place she had left the preceding Day.

On the Evening of the 25th we got Sight of Japura, and the Ship at Anchor there; but it fell little Wind, and we were obliged to anchor at the Distance of Ten or Eleven Miles from it; as they had observed us from the Shore, I thought no Time was to be lost, and therefore at Eight P. M. sent all the Boats, well manned and armed, with Lieutenant Blayney Rice, who got to the Ship about Midnight; and though she had been hauled close to the Shore, (on seeing us in the Evening,) under a small Battery, yet the Surprise was complete, and she was boarded without any Loss, many of the Crew jumping overboard at the Time.

The Battery fired on them so soon as they discovered her to be in our Possession; but though some of the Boats' Oars were broke by the Shot, no other Accident happened, and they effected getting her out before Daylight, when she joined us, and we found her to be the Dutch East India Company's Ship Underneming, mounting Six Carriage Guns, and having Eighty Men on board. After putting the Prize in order,

May 28th, joined the Orpheus off Cheribon, and found that in our Absence she had captured a Dutch Brig, a Sloop, and Two Prows; the Three latter were destroyed. Same Day run into the Anchorage to the Westward of Point Indramago, where we landed most of the Prisoners; some of them being very sickly.

The Dolphin Brig is a new Vessel well coppered, and equipped, and well adapted for Service, (particularly in Shoal Water,) she mounts Fourteen Guns, and has good Room and Security at Quarters.

*Arrogant, Madras Roads, A. M.
August 11, 1800.*

S I R,

I Have the Pleasure to acquaint you, that on the Morning of the 4th August, being in Sight of Point Divy, we discovered Two Ships in the N. E. and a Brig E. by S, to the former we gave Chase, and about Noon we were sufficiently near to see that One of them was a small Frigate with a Tier of Guns, and the other a Merchant Ship, both under English Colours. At Three Quarters past Two P. M. we had near'd the Chace considerably, when she began throwing her Guns, Boats, and other heavy Articles overboard. At Four P. M. the Shot from our chace Guns went over her, when she hauled the English Ensign down, and hoisted French National Colours, fired her Stern Chaces Two or Three Times at us, and then struck. She proved to be L'Uni French Privateer, of Thirty Guns, Eighteen and Nine Pounds, all of which were thrown overboard, during the Chace, except Two Eighteen Pounds, Two Nine-Pounds, and Two Carronades; she was commanded by Jean François Hodoul, and had a Crew of Two Hundred and Fifty Men, on her leaving the Mauritius on her present Cruise: but had on board only Two Hundred and Sixteen Men, when captured, having put the Rest into Prizes; on taking Possession of her, we found that the other Ship, was the Friendship, (English Merchantman,) from Bengal bound to Madras, and that the Brig was the Bee, from Madras bound to Mafulipatam, both of which Vessels, had been captured by her in the Morning: we made Sail after the Ship, which we recaptured at Ten at Night, but the Brig made her Escape.

L'Uni left the Mauritius, the 4th May, and had captured the English Privateer Harriot from the Cape of Good Hope, the Helen belonging to Bombay, and the Ship and Brig before-mentioned.

The Arrogant, with L'Uni Prize, anchored in this Road last Night at Nine o'Clock, and recaptured Ship Friendship I expect shortly, as she fails tolerably well, and I only parted with her Two Days ago.

I have the Honor to be, &c.

SIR,

I Herewith enclose, for the Information of the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, the Copy of a Letter which I received Yesterday Afternoon from Captain Twysden, of His Majesty's Ship Revolutionnaire, giving an Account of his having captured the Moucheron French Brig Privateer, belonging to Bourdeaux, mounting Sixteen Guns and One Hundred and Thirty Men.

I am, Sir, &c. &c. &c.

Revolutionnaire, et Sea, 16th February 1801.

MY LORD,

I Have the Honor to inform your Lordship, that early this Morning, I captured the French Brig Privateer Moucheron, belonging to Bourdeaux, mounting Sixteen Guns, Twelve and Six Pounders, and One Hundred and Thirty Men, out Twenty Days from Passage, but had only made One Capture, the William Brig of London, from Saint Michael's, loaded with Fruit.

Extract of a Letter from the Honorable Captain Robert Stopford, of His Majesty's Ship Excellent, in Quiberon-Bay, to Earl St. Vincent, the 23d February 1801.

MY LORD,

I Have the Honor to acquaint your Lordship, that on the Night of the 20th Instant, I sent the Boats of the Excellent to endeavour to bring off a Cutter and a Sloop which were at Anchor near the Point of Quiberon; unfortunately that same Evening, after Dark, a large Chasse Marée with Troops on board, going to the Island of Belle-Isle, had taken her Station close to the above Vessels, the Resistance which the Boats met with was consequently much greater than there was at first Reason to expect; this Circumstance did not, however, prevent Lieutenant Church (having the Command of the Boats) from making the Attack upon the Chasse Marée, in which he gallantly persevered, till being badly wounded himself, and Two Men killed in his Boat, he was obliged to retire; the other Boats under the Command of Messrs. Crawford and Mannings, (Midshipmen,) resolutely boarded and succeeded in bringing off the Cutter called L'Arc, an Armed Vessel in the Service of the Republic, commanded by an Ensigne de Vaisseau, and employed as Convoy to and from Belle-Isle; this Vessel had also on board a Detachment of Troops, who were made Prisoners, and who made the Vessel's Force much superior to that of the Assaultants.

R. STOPFORD.

BE pleased to inform the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, that, on the 26th Instant, at Three P.M. being between the Isle of Wight and Portland, a Lugger hove in Sight to Leeward, with a large Sail in Chace of her; conceiving I might cut her off, I instantly bore away in a Direction for that Purpose, and, after a Chace of Four Hours, had the good Fortune to effect it, and being about to board her, she struck her Colours. On taking Possession of her I found her to be the Espoir Lugger Privateer, Monsieur Alexis Bailler, Commander, mounting fourteen Carriage Guns, with Seventy-five Men, had failed only Two Days before from Saint Maloes, and had taken nothing. The Sail in Chace proved to be His Majesty's Frigate L'Oiseau, Lord Augustus Fitzroy, Commander, which came up as we were exchanging Prisoners. None Killed or Wounded.

I have the Honor to be, &c. &c. &c.

Downing Street, March 7, 1801.

A LETTER, of which the following is an Extract, has been received by the Right Honorable Henry Dundas, One of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, from Lieutenant-Colonel Frazer, Commandant of the Garrison of Gorée, on the Coast of Africa, dated off Senegal, 5th January 1801.

ON the 3d Instant, the Weather being very favourable, and the Surf unusually low, it was determined by Sir Charles Hamilton and myself to attack an Armed Brig and Schooner lying at Anchor in the River.

The Party destined for this Service, consisting of Fifty-five Volunteers from the Melpomene, under the Command of Lieutenant Dick, Five from the Crew of the Transport, and Thirty six, commanded by Lieutenant Christie, from the African Corps, left the Frigate at Half past Nine o'Clock in Five Boats, and having passed the Bar without Accident, and the Batteries at the Point without being discovered, arrived at a Quarter before Eleven o'Clock within a few Yards of the Brig, when the Enemy commenced a very heavy Fire, through which our People boarded, and, after a severe Contest, which lasted Twenty Minutes, carried the Vessel.

It appears she was called the Senegal, commanded by M. Renou, mounted Eighteen Guns, with about Sixty Men, Eighteen of whom are Prisoners.

Two of the best Boats having been destroyed by the Enemy's Shot, Lieutenant Dick judged it better to turn the Guns of the Brig upon the Schooner than to attempt boarding her, and kept up a well-directed Fire for some Time; but she was so well protected by the Batteries on Shore, and by small Arms from the Southern Bank, that he found it necessary to desist; and cutting the Brig's Cable, made Sail with her down the River.

After Two Hours Possession she unfortunately grounded, and he was obliged to relinquish his Prize, after rendering her unfit for further Service.

The Retreat was conducted with the greatest Order, and the Whole of the Prisoner and Wounded brought off notwithstanding the Surf upon the Bar, and under a Fire of Grape and small Arms from the adjoining Batteries.

I enclose a Return of the Killed and Wounded, and have to regret the Loss of Two very good Officers, Lieutenants Palmer of the Navy, and Vivion of the Marines.

Admiralty-Office, March 7, 1801.

Copy of a Letter from Sir Charles Hamilton, Bart. Captain of His Majesty's Ship Melpomene, to Evan Nepean, Esq; dated at Gorée, 8th January 1801.

SIR,

YOU will be pleased to inform their Lordships, that, being off the Bar of Senegal, on the 3d Instant, the Weather moderate, and the Surf low, with the Concurrence of Colonel Frazier, I conceived it possible, if we could surprise a Brig Corvette and an Armed Schooner, anchored within the Bar, to possess ourselves of the Battery commanding the Entrance, and, by the Means of their own Vessels, as I had none under my Command fit for the Purpose, to have finally reduced Senegal; I therefore detached Lieutenant Dick, with Ninety-six Officers and Men from the Melpomene, and African Corps, in Five Boats, which left the Ship at Nine P. M. were fortunate enough topris the heavy Surf on the Bar with the flood Tide without Accident, and unobserved by the Point Battery; but on their approaching within hail of the Brig the Alarm was given, and the Two Bow Guns discharged, by which Lieutenant Palmer, with Seven Seamen, were killed, and Two Boats sunk. Notwithstanding this unfortunate Accident, the Brig was carried after an obstinate Defence of Twenty Minutes, but which gave the Schooner Time to cut her Cable:—Lieutenant Dick finding that the Loss of his Two best Boats, and many of his best Men, added to a constant Fire from the Schooner and Two Batteries, must have rendered any further Attempt abortive, he judged it right to make every Attempt to get her over the Bar, but the Ebb Tide having made, and being totally unacquainted with the Navigation of the River, she got a-ground; and seeing it impossible ever to get her off, and being hulled by every Shot from the Point Battery, he found it absolutely necessary to retreat; and under the many Obstacles he had to surmount, across a tremendous Surf, under a heavy Fire of Grape and Musketty, excites my Admiration even more, if possible, than the gallant Manner in which the Brig was carried; I therefore feel it my Duty to recommend Lieutenant Dick to their Lordships' Notice, who speaks highly of the Officers and Men employed under him, both from this Ship and the African Corps; and we had the Satisfaction at Daylight to perceive the Brig had sunk up to her Gunwales in a quick Sand. It appears she was called the Senegal; had been fitted out there at the Expence of the Republic; and was commanded by Citizen Renou, who was on board at the Time, and of whose Fate we are uncertain; she mounted Eighteen Guns, Twelve and Nine-Pounders, and had nearly Sixty Men on board, some of which escaped in a Boat, the Rest were killed in boarding, except Five Whites and Thirteen Blacks, who are now on board this Ship. It was chiefly owing to the Alacrity and Courage of the latter that we met such Resistance. Enclosed I have the Honor to transmit a List of Killed and Wounded.

I remain, Sir, &c. &c. &c.

Signed C. HAMILTON.

Netley, River Tagus, 26th of February 1801.

MY LORD,

I Have the Honor to inform your Lordship of His Majesty's Schooner Netley, under my Command, having, on the 11th Instant, Eight Leagues S. W. of Oporto, captured the Spanish Privateer Schooner St. Josef, alias el Belozo, Don Juan Antonio de Amaza, Commander; a new Vessel, pierced for Fourteen-Guns, but had when taken only Four long Twelve-Pounders mounted, Six Swivels, and manned with Forty-four Men.

Having received Information from some English Prisoners on board her, that several Ships of the Convoy from England had been taken the preceding Day, I manned the Prize Schooner, and ordered Mr. Buehan, Master of the Netley, to proceed on board and go in Chace of Two strange Sail bearing West, whilst the Netley went in Pursuit of Three others to the Northward: The first Vessel we came up with proved to be a Brig from Southampton, taken the Day before by a Spanish Privateer; the next also proved a captured Brig from London, on board of which I sent a boat with a Midshipman and Six Men, and gave Chace to the Third Vessel, (a Lugger) who we drove on Shore Six Leagues to the Southward of Oporto.

I have every Hope of her being destroyed, as there was much Surf on the Beach at the Time.

Sir Exeter 21 March 1801—

—Let the Rich y<sup>e</sup> lowest slave disdain:
He's equally a Link of Nature's Chain;
Labours to y<sup>e</sup> same End, joins in one View,
And both alike y<sup>e</sup> will divine pursue;
And at the last, are levelled, Kings and Slave
Without distinction in one silent Grave.

I presume you are not unacquainted, of the meeting of a Great number of the injured poor inhabitants of this once happy City, & the great reason there is for a redress of their present miserable state, come forward as a Man and a good Magistrate; and let the World see that you are not that selfish cynic in heart, that your former conduct have made you appear to be.—Depend upon it that if there is not some redress & that speedily, the consequences will be dreadful, as we are resolved, nor can we any longer support ourselves and Families.—

Therefore it is better to Die like Men than any longer to hear y<sup>e</sup> cries of our starving Children for Bread, when thro' the villainy of a few designing Men, (who for the sake of a little paltry Gold) hath in the midst of Plenty advanced the prices of every necessary Article of Life to such an enormous price, that we are unable to purchase them.—We have waited with the greatest patience for redress, without effect, & are now Determined to redress ourselves.—we fear not the Soldiers, neither the Volunteers (vulgarly termed the Farmers Bull-Dogs,) they are our Friends, Brothers, and Fellow sufferers.—we know the principal Villains in our neighbourhood, & are determined to be revenged.—

Fire and Sword, is the word, and by the Almighty God they shall not escape our vengeance, we have cried unto Man in vain, we have now appealed unto God, who hath inspired us with the just means of revenging ourselves take care of yourself & let Hemmings, Drake, & all the other crew of enormous engrossing Villains of Millers, Graziers, & Farmers, know their Danger, that they may repent before it is too late, for without a great Alteration in yours & their conduct, they will soon appear before the great tribunal of God, to answer for the miseries they have brought upon Thousands of unhappy objects.

Call your Fellow Citizens together & endeavour to avert the Storm which so heavily largeth over this unhappy country is the wish of your Friends

Copy of a Letter from Rear-Admiral Duckworth, Commander in Chief of His Majesty's Ships and Vessels at the Leeward Islands, to Evan Nepean, Esq; dated Martinique, 16th February 1801.

SIR,

HAVING learnt, from the Arrival of the Calcutta on the 12th Ultimo, that a Convoy might be soon expected, I dispatched all the Squadron within my reach to cruise to Windward of Barbadoes for its Protection, which has eventually proved fortunate; for the Particulars respecting it I shall refer you to Captain Bradby's Letter of the 6th Instant, herewith transmitted; as also to the Letters of Captain Manby, of the Bourdelois, of the 16th of January and 2d of this Month, on which he writes most fully. I must beg you to call the Attention of my Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty to the meritorious Conduct of Mr. Burrows, Commander of the Ship Jupiter, bound to Jamaica, who, after he had lost Convoy, collected more than Sixty Sail, and made such a Disposition of the largest Ships for the Protection of the Whole, as evidently deterred the small Squadron afterwards brought to Action by the Bourdelois, from attacking them; and by that judicious and public-spirited Step, all but those which branched off for Surinam, &c. arrived safe at Barbadoes.

I am, &c.

J. T. DUCKWORTH.

Extract of a Letter from Captain Bradby, Commander of His Majesty's Ship Andromeda, to Rear-Admiral Duckworth, dated Martinique, the 6th of February 1801.

Enclosed are Two Letters from, Captain Manby to me, from which the Service he has rendered to the different Islands, by destroying a Squadron sent out by Victor Hughes, for the Interception of the outward bound Convoy, speaks for itself.

His Majesty's Ship Bourdelois, January 16, 1801, off Teneriffe.

SIR,

ON the 8th Instant, off Palma, in a Calm, I dispatched Two Boats under the Orders of Lieutenant Barrie, in Pursuit of a strange Sail in the S. E.; after a fatiguing Row of Fourteen Hours, Lieutenant Barrie, at Two P. M. with only one Boat being up with the Chase, boarded her with great Gallantry, although opposed by Ten Frenchmen, who kept up a smart Fire from Four Four-Pounders; she proved to be the Adventure of London, one of the Convoy which had parted Company in the first Gale of Wind; the French Prize-Master was wounded by a Cutlass, the only Blood spilt on the Occasion.

Gaining Information from the Adventure, that on the same Day she was captured by the Mouche Privateer, of Bourdeaux; the Mouche likewise captured a valuable Copper-bottomed Ship, bound to Barbadoes, and as both Vessels had Orders to proceed to Santa Cruz, in Teneriffe, I considered it my Duty to push for that Port, and by plying hard with the Sweeps all the 9th, I arrived off Santa Cruz on the Morning of the 10th, when I had the pleasing Satisfaction of rescuing the abovementioned British Ship from the Hands of the Enemy; she proved to be the Aurora of London.

I have the Honor to be, &c. &c. &c.

Captain Bradby, Andromeda.

T. MANBY.

His Majesty's Ship Bourdelois, Carlisle-Bay, Barbadoes, February 1, 1801.

SIR,

THREE Days ago, being on the Station you ordered me to cruise for the Protection of our scattered Convoy, I acquaint you, for the Information of the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, that at Noon Three Sail were despatched to Windward evidently in chase of us, which I soon discovered to be an Enemy's Squadron, consisting of Two large Brigs and a Schooner:—having shortened Sail, enabled them to be well up with us at Sunset, when I wore round to give them Battle; at Six I had the Honor of bringing the largest Brig to close Action at about Ten Yards Distance, but was not so fortunate with the other Vessels, who fought very shy on the Occasion, on observing we were enabled to fight both Sides at once; Thirty Minutes of close Cannonade with my near Opponent completely silenced him, when he hailed that he had struck, and lowered his Topails, when his Companions made Sail from us: but I think I can safely aver they are sufficiently damaged to spoil their Cruise. My First Lieutenant, Mr. Robert Barrie, on taking Possession of the Prize, found her to be a remarkable fine French National Corvette, called La Curieuse, pierced for Twenty Guns, but only Eighteen long Nine-Pounders mounted, One Hundred and Sixty-eight Men, and commanded by Captain G. Radelet; sent out from Cayenne Twenty-eight Days ago by Victor Hughes with this Squadron to intercept the outward-bound West India Fleet. With real Concern I acquaint you that we had One Man killed and Seven wounded in the Action; but from the Abilities and Attention of Mr. G. Roddam, my Surgeon, I trust the latter are likely to do well: Lieutenant Barrie forms One of the Number, but declined to quit his Quarters. Mr. J. Jones, Master's Mate, and Mr. J. Lions, Midshipman, are included in this List.

The Killed and Wounded in the Corvette amounted to near Fifty, her Deck, fore and aft, being covered with the dying and the dead. The French Captain survived but a few Hours, having lost both his Legs, and many of the Prisoners were in an equal pitiable State.

A melancholy and painful Talk is now imposed on me to relate the sad Catastrophe attending this Capture, which, after being more than an Hour in our Possession, was found to be rapidly sinking, in consequence of her innumerable Shot Holes: every Exertion was made to preserve her; but, alas! at Eight the foundered clofe beside us. I had, some Time previous to this Event, ordered every Body to quit her; but British Humanity, while striving to extricate the wounded Frenchmen from Destruction, weighed so forcibly with Mr. Archibald Montgomery and Twenty brave Followers, that they persevered in this meritorious Service until the Vessel sunk under them. The floating Wreck, I rejoice to say, buoyed up many from Destruction; but with Sorrow I mention Mr. Frederick Spence and Mr. Auckland, Two promising young Gentlemen, with Five of my gallant Crew, unfortunately perished. The Delay occasioned by this unhappy Event, securing One Hundred and Twenty Prisoners, knotting the Rigging, and repairing Sail, detained me until Eleven before I could pursue the flying Enemy, which, I assure you, was done with all Alacrity, but without Success, as the Night favoured their Escape.

I cannot conclude this Account of my Proceedings without informing you how highly I approve of the Conduct of Lieutenant Robert Barrie, Lieutenant James Alexander Gordon, Mr. MacCleverty the Master, and Mr. Montgomery, my Acting Lieutenant.

The Proceedings of Warrant and Petty Officers gave me every Satisfaction; and I have not Words to offer sufficiently in the Praise of the Ship's Company for their ready Obedience to my Orders in not waiting a single Shot; I trust it will not be deemed too assuming in my recommending my First Lieutenant Mr. Robert Barrie to the Notice of the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty as an Officer highly worthy of Advancement.

I have the Honor to be, &c. &c. &c.

(Signed) T. MANBY.

N. B. Allow me to subjoin the Statement of the Enemy's Force, and to mention, that the only Capture made by this Squadron was the Susan Brig, of Halifax, bound to Surinam, which they burnt.

La Curieuse, of 390 Tons, 18 Nine-Pounders, 168 Men, not Two Years old, with 34 Feet Beam, and 90 Feet Keel, commanded by Captain George Radelet.

La Mutine, of 300 Tons, 16 long Six-Pounders, 156 Men, commanded by Captain J. Raybairn.
L'Esperance Schooner, mounting 6 Four-Pounders, 52 Men commanded by Captain Haymond.

Copy of a Letter from Admiral Lutwidge, Commander in Chief of His Majesty's Ships and Vessels in the Downs, to Evan Nepean, Esq; dated the 10th Instant.

SIR,

IT is with Satisfaction I enclose to you, for the Information of my Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, a Letter which I have this Day received from Lieutenant Irwin, commanding the Stag Hired Cutter, acquainting me with his having, Yesterday Evening, captured the French Privateer Le Poisson Volant, of Fourteen Guns, and manned with Fifty-five Men; and that he had also recaptured a Brig, her only Prize since the last failed from Dieppe.

I am, &c. SKEFF. LUTWIDGE.

His Majesty's Hired Cutter Stag, Downs, April 10, 1801.

SIR,

I Have the Honor to acquaint you that, Yesterday at Six P. M. Beachy-Head bearing North Ten or Eleven Leagues, we saw a Lugger and Brig on our Weather Bow, and immediately gave Chase to them, and at Half past Seven captured them both. The Lugger is called Le Poisson Volant, a French Privateer belonging to Boulogne, commanded by Citizen Jacques Antoine Hedl, carries Fourteen Carriage Guns and Fifty-five Men; had been out Four Days from Dieppe, and captured only the Brig above-mentioned. On the Cruise before the captured Six Vessels, Four of which have been recaptured.

The Privateer had Two Men killed and Four wounded.

I am, &c. &c.

(Signed) JAMES IRWIN.

Copy of a Letter from Captain Sir Edward Hamilton, Commander of His Majesty's Ship Trent, to Evan Nepean, Esq; dated at Plymouth, the 7th Instant.

SIR,

I Have to acquaint you, for the Information of the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, with the Arrival of His Majesty's Ship Trent, under my Command, at this Port, and to enclose the Copy of a Letter I have this Day written to Lord Amelius Beauclerk, Captain of His Majesty's Ship Fortune.

E. HAMILTON.

Copy of a Letter from Captain Sir Edward Hamilton, of His Majesty's Ship Trent, in Caspian Bay, the 7th April 1801, to the Right Honorable Lord Amelius Beauclerk, Captain of His Majesty's Ship Fortune.

IN Obedience to your Signal, the Chace was continued until Dark, at which Time being becalmed among the Rocks of the Isles of Brehat I anchored, and the next Morning, (the 3d Instant,) observing a large Ship with French Colours, under the Protection of a Cutter and Lugger Privateers, making Sail with the Flood from the Anchorage of Brehat to Plamponl, the Boats were immediately dispatched under the Command of Lieutenant Chamberlayne, having under his Orders Mr. Scallon, Second Lieutenant; Mr. Bellamy, Third; Mr. Holkins, Master; and Mr. Taite, Marine Officer, &c. &c.; the Enemy seemed, at first, determined to resist and defend their Vessels, and sent many Boats from the Shore to their Assistance, who, with the Lugger, took the Ship in Tow, but on the very spirited and near approach of the Trent's, the Lugger and Boats cast off the Tow, and after maintaining a severe Conflict, aided by a continued Fire from Five Batteries, they were at length subdued and chased on the Rocks; after which the Ship, in the Face of open Day, was most gallantly boarded by the First Lieutenant and Marine Officer, who, I am sorry to say, has lost his Right Leg, and the very meritorious and spirited Zeal with which all the Officers and Men were animated on this Enterprize, reflects on them the highest Honor.

The Ship appears English built, about <sup>THREE</sup>THREE HUNDRED Tons, with a Cargo of Corn, and various other Articles, but not having made any Prisoners, further Particulars are unknown.

Enclosed I return you a List of Killed and Wounded; that of the Enemy could not be exactly ascertained; Two were killed on board the Ship and several were drowned: the State of the Prisoners requiring Protection into Port, and the Wind being Easterly, I judged it prudent to put into this Place.

I am, &c. &c. &c.

(Signed) E. HAMILTON.

One Marine Officer wounded.

WEDNESDAY, APRIL 15, 1801.

Admiralty-Office, April 15, 1801.

CAPTAIN OTWAY, of His Majesty's Ship the London, arrived in Town this Morning with Dispatches from Admiral Sir Hyde Parker, Commander in Chief of a Squadron of His Majesty's Ships employed on a particular Service, to Evan Nepean, Esq; dated on board the London, in Copenhagen Roads, the 6th Instant, of which the following are Copies:

SIR,

YOU will be pleased to acquaint the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, that since my Letter of the 23d of March, no Opportunity of Wind offered for going up the Sound until the 25th, when the Wind shifted in a most violent Squall from the S. W. to the N. W. and North, and blew with such Violence, and with so great a Sea, as to render it impossible for any Ship to have weighed her Anchor. The Wind and Sea were even so violent as to oblige many Ships to let go a second Anchor to prevent them from driving, notwithstanding they were riding with Two Cables an End; and, by the Morning, the Wind veered again to the Southward of the West.

On the 30th of last Month the Wind having come to the Northward, we passed into the Sound with the Fleet, but not before I had assured myself of the hostile Intentions of the Danes to oppose our Passage, as the Papers marked No. 1, 2, 3, and 4, will prove; after this Intercourse, there could be no Doubt remaining of their Determination to resist.

After anchoring about Five or Six Miles from the Island of Huin, I reconnoitred, with Vice Admiral Lord Nelson, and Rear-Admiral Graves, the formidable Line of Ships, Radeens, pontoons, Gallies, Fire-Ships, and Gun-Boats, flanked and supported by extensive Batteries on the Two Islands called the Crowns; the largest of which was mounted with from Fifty to Seventy Pieces of Cannon; these were again commanded by Two Ships of Seventy Guns, and a large Frigate in the Inner Road of Copenhagen and Two Sixty-four Gun Ships; (without Mails) were moored on the Flat, on the Starboard Side of the Entrance into the Arsenal.

The Day after, the Wind being Southerly, we again examined their Position, and came to the Resolution of attacking them from the Southward.

Vice-Admiral Lord Nelson, having offered his Services for conducting the Attack, had, some Days before we entered the Sound, shifted his Flag to the Elephant; and after having examined and buoyed the Outer Channel of the Middle Ground, his Lordship proceeded with the Twelve Ships of the Line named in the Margin*, all the Frigates, Bombs, Fire-Ships, and all the small Vessels, and that Evening anchored off Draco Point to make his Disposition for the Attack, and wait for the Wind to the Southward.

It was agreed between us, that the remaining Ships with me should weigh at the same Moment his Lordship did, and menace the Crown Batteries, and the Four Ships of the Line that lay at the Entrance of the Arsenal; as also to Cover our disabled Ships as they came out of Action.

I have now the Honor to enclose a Copy of Vice Admiral Lord Nelson's Report to me of the Action on the 2d Instant. His Lordship has stated so fully the Whole of his Proceedings on that Day, as only to leave me the Opportunity to testify my entire Acquiescence and Testimony of the Bravery and Intrepidity with which the Action was supported throughout the Line.

* Elephant, Defence, Monarch, Bellona, Edgar, Russell, Ganges, Glutton, Isis, Agamemnon, Polyphemus, Ardent.

Was it possible for me to add any Thing to the well-earned Renown of Lord Nelson, it would be by asserting, that his Exertions, great as they have heretofore been, never were carried to a higher Pitch of Zeal for his Country's Service.

I have only to lament that the Sort of Attack, confined within an intricate and narrow Passage, excluded the Ships particularly under my Command from the Opportunity of exhibiting their Valour; but I can, with great Truth assert, that the same Spirit and Zeal animated the Whole of the Fleet; and I trust that the Contest in which we are engaged, will, on some future Day, afford them an Occasion of shewing that the Whole were inspired with the same Spirit, had the Field been sufficiently extensive to have brought it into Action.

It is with the deepest Concern I mention the Loss of Captains Mofse and Riou, Two very brave and gallant Officers, and whose Loss, as I am well informed, will be sensibly felt by the Families they have left behind them; the former a Wife and Children, the latter, an aged Mother.

From the known Gallantry of Sir Thomas Thompson on former Occasions, the Naval Service will have to regret the Loss of the future Exertions of that brave Officer, whose Leg was shot off.

For all other Particulars I beg leave to refer their Lordships to Captain Otway, who was with Lord Nelson in the latter Part of the Action, and able to answer any Questions that may be thought necessary to put to him. A Return of the Killed and Wounded you will receive herewith.

I have the Honor to be, &c.

H. PARKER.

P. S. The Promotions and Appointments that have taken Place on this Occasion will be sent by the next Opportunity that offers; but I cannot close this without acquainting their Lordships, that Captain Mofse being killed very early in the Action, Lieutenant John Yelland continued it with the greatest Spirit and good Conduct; I must, therefore, in Justice to his Merit, beg Leave to recommend him to their Lordships' Favor.

No. I.

London, in the Catagat, 27th March 1801.

FROM the hostile Transaction of the Court of Denmark, sending away His Britannic Majesty's Charge d'Affaires, the Commander in Chief of His Majesty's Fleet is anxious to know what the Determination of the Danish Court is, and whether the Commanding Officer of Cronenberg Castle has received Orders to fire upon the British Fleet as they pass into the Sound, as he must deem the firing of the first Gun a Declaration of War on the Part of Denmark.

(Signed) HYDE PARKER.

TRANSLATION, No. II.

ANSWER.

Cronberg, March 28th.

IN Answer to the Admiral's honoured Letter, I have to inform him, that no Orders are given to fire on the English Fleet; an Express is gone to Copenhagen, and should any Orders be sent, I shall immediately send an Officer on board to inform the Admiral.

(Signed) STRICKER, Governor.

TRANSLATION, No. III.

Cronberg-Castle, 28th March, 1801.

IN Answer to Your Excellency's Letter, which I did not receive till the following day, at Half past Eight, I have the Honour to inform you, that His Majesty the King of Denmark did not send away the Charge d'Affaires, but that upon his own Demand he obtained a Passport.

As a Soldier I cannot meddle with Politicks, but I am not at Liberty to suffer a Fleet, whose Intention is not yet known, to approach the Guns of the Castle which I have the Honour to command.

In case Your Excellency should think proper to make any Proposals to His Majesty the King of Denmark, I wish to be informed thereof, before the Fleet approaches nearer to the Castle. An explicit Answer is desired.

(Signed.) STRICKER.

ANSWER.

On board the London, 29th March

1801. One A. M.

SIR,

IN Answer to your Excellency's Note just now received, the Underigned has only to reply, that, finding the Intentions of the Court of Denmark, to be hostile against His Britannic Majesty, he regards the Answer as a Declaration of War, and therefore, agreeable to his Instructions, can no longer refrain from Hostilities, however reluctant it may be to his Feelings: but at the same Time will be ready to attend to any Proposals of the Court of Denmark for restoring the former Amity and Friendship which had for so many Years subsisted between the Two Courts.

(Signed) H. PARKER.

Cronberg-Castle.*

Elephant, off Copenhagen,

3d April, 1801.

SIR,

IN Obedience to your Directions to report the Proceedings of the Squadron named in the Margin *, which you did me the Honor to place under my Command: I beg Leave to inform you that having, by the Assistance of that able Officer Captain Riou, and the unremitting Exertions of Captain Brisbane, and the Masters of the Amazon and Cruiser, in particular, buoyed the Channel of the Outer Deep, and the Position of the Middle Ground, the Squadron passed in Safety, and anchored off Drago the Evening of the First; and that Yesterday Morning I made the Signal for the Squadron to weigh, and to engage the Danish Line, consisting of Six sail of the Line, Eleven Floating Batteries, mounting from Twenty-six Twenty-four Pounders, to Eighteen Eighteen Pounders, and one Bomb Ship, besides Schooner Gun-Vessels.

These were supported by the Crown Islands, mounting Eighty-eight Cannon, and Four Sail of the Line moored in the Harbour's Mouth, and some Batteries on the Island of Amak.

The Bomb-Ship and Schooner Gun-Vessels made their Escape, the other Seventeen fail are sunk, burnt, or taken, being the Whole of the Danish Line to the Southward of the Crown Islands, after a Battle of Four Hours.

From the very intricate Navigation, the Bellona and Ruffel unfortunately grounded, but although not in the Situation assigned them, yet so placed as to be of great Service. The Agamemnon could not weather the Shoal of the Middle, and was obliged to anchor; but not the smallest Blame can be attached to Captain Faneourt; it was an Event to which all the Ships were liable. These Accidents prevented the Extension of our Line by the Three Ships before mentioned, who would, I am confident, have silenced the Crown Islands, the Two outer Ships in the Harbour's Mouth, and prevented the heavy Loss in the Defiance and Monarch, and which unhappily threw the gallant and good Captain Riou, (to whom I had given the Command of the Frigates and Sloops named in the Margin *, to assist in the Attack of the Ships at the Harbour's Mouth) under a very heavy Fire; the Consequence has been the Death of Captain Riou, and many brave Officers and Men in the Frigates and Sloops.

The Bombs were directed and took their Stations abreast of the Elephant, and threw some Shells into the Arsenal.

Capt. Rose, who volunteered his Services to direct the Gun Brigs, did every Thing that was possible to get them forward, but the Current was too strong for them to be of Service during the Action, but not the less Merit is due to Capt. Rose, and, I believe, all the Officers and Crews of the Gun Brigs for their Exertions.

The Boats of those Ships of the Fleet, who were not ordered on the Attack, afforded us every Assistance; and the Officers and Men who were in them, merit my warmest Approbation.

The Defiance took her Station in raking the Southernmost Danish Ship of the Line, and performed the greatest Service.

The Action began at Five Minutes past Ten. The Van, led by Capt. George Murray of the Edgar, who set a noble Example of Intrepidity, which was as well followed up by every Captain, Officer, and Man in the Squadron.

It is my Duty to state to you the high and distinguished Merit and Gallantry of Rear Admiral Graves.

To Captain Foley, who permitted me the Honor of hoisting my Flag in the Elephant, I feel under the greatest Obligation; his Advice was necessary on many and important Occasions during the Battle.

I beg Leave to express how much I feel indebted to every Captain, Officer, and Man, for their Zeal and distinguished Bravery on this Occasion. The Honorable Colonel Stewart did me the Favor to be on board the Elephant, and himself, with every Officer and Soldier under his Orders, shared with Pleasure the Toils and Dangers of the Day.

The Loss in such a Battle has naturally been very heavy. Amongst many other brave Officers and Men who were killed, I have with Sorrow to place the Name of Captain Moise, of the Monarch, who has left a Wife and Six Children to lament his Loss; and, among the Wounded, that of Captain Sir Thomas B. Thompson of the Bellona.

I have the Honor to be, &c. &c. &c.

Extract of a Letter from Admiral Sir Hyde Parker, Commander in Chief of His Majesty's Ships and Vessels employed on a particular Service, to Evan Nepean, Esq; Secretary of the Admiralty, dated on board His Majesty's Ship London, in Copenhagen-Road, the 6th April 1801.

SIR,

THE Honorable Lieutenant-Colonel Stewart having volunteered his Services by being the Bearer of these Dispatches, I have accepted thereof, on a Belief that it will be more expeditious than by Sea.

I have the Pleasure to transmit an Armistice concluded between the Court of Denmark and myself.

I mean, as soon as the disabled Ships are refitted, and the work of the Wounded moved into the Holstein Danish Ship of the Line, which I have commissioned as an Hospital Ship, to proceed over the Grounds into the Baltic to put into Execution the remaining Part of my Instructions.

The His and Monarch being found in so bad a State from the late Action, as to render it necessary to send them to England to have their Damages repaired, I shall send them Home for that Purpose with the Holstein Hospital-Ship, which has the Wounded and Sick on board.

The Danish Government on the one Hand, and Admiral Sir Hyde Parker, Knight, Commander in Chief of His Britannic Majesty's Naval Forces in the Road of Copenhagen on the other, being, from Motives of Humanity, equally anxious to put a Stop to the further Effusion of Blood, and to save the City of Copenhagen from the disastrous Consequences which may attend a further Prosecution of Hostilities against that City, have mutually agreed upon a Military Armistice or Suspension of Arms.

His Danish Majesty having for that Purpose appointed Major-General Ernst Frederik Waltherstorff, Chamberlain to His Danish Majesty, and Colonel of a Regiment, and Adjutant-General Hans Lindholm, Captain in His Danish Majesty's Navy, his Commissioners for agreeing about the Terms of the said Armistice, and Admiral Sir Hyde Parker, Knight, having, with the same View duly authorised the Right Honorable Horatio Lord Nelson of the Nile, Knight of the Most Honorable Order of the Bath, Duke of Bronte in Sicily, Knight of the Grand Cross of the Order of St. Ferdinand and of Merit, and of the Imperial Order of the Crescent, Vice-Admiral in the Fleet of His Britannic Majesty, and the Honorable William Stewart, Lieutenant-Colonel in His Britannic Majesty's Service, and Member of Parliament, and commanding a Detachment of His Britannic Majesty's Forces embarked; these said Commissioners have met this Day, and having exchanged their respective Powers have agreed upon the following Terms:

Art. I. From the Moment of the Signature of this Armistice all Hostilities shall immediately cease between the Fleet under the Command of Admiral Sir Hyde Parker, and the City of Copenhagen, and all the Armed Ships and Vessels of His Danish Majesty in the Road of Harbour of that City, as likewise between the different Islands and Provinces of Denmark, Jutland, included.

Art. II. The armed Ships and Vessels belonging to His Danish Majesty, shall remain in their present actual Situation as to Armament, Equipment, and hostile Position; and the Treaty commonly understood as the Treaty of Armed Neutrality shall, as far as relates to the Co-operation of Denmark, be suspended, while the Armistice remains in force.

On the other Side, the Armed Ships and Vessels under the Command of Admiral Sir Hyde Parker, shall in no Manner whatsoever molest the City of Copenhagen or His Danish Majesty's Armed Ships and Vessels on the Coasts of the different Islands and Provinces of Denmark, Jutland included; and in order to avoid every Thing which might otherwise create Unanimities or Jealousy, Sir Hyde Parker shall not suffer any of the Ships or Vessels under his Command to approach within Gun-Shot of the Armed Ships or Port of His Danish Majesty's in the Road of Copenhagen: this Restriction shall not however extend to Vessels necessarily passing or repassing through the Gaspar, or King's Channel.

Art. III. This Armistice is to protect the City of Copenhagen, as also the Coasts of Denmark, of Jutland, and Islands included, against the Attack of any other Naval Force which His Britannic Majesty may now or hereafter, during its remaining in Force, have in these Seas.

Art. IV. The Fleet of Admiral Sir Hyde Parker shall be permitted to provide itself at Copenhagen, and along the Coasts of the different Islands and Provinces of Denmark and Jutland included, with every Thing which it may require for the Health and Comfort of its Crews.

Art. V. Admiral Sir Hyde Parker shall send on Shore all such Subjects of His Danish Majesty as are now on board the British Fleet under his Command, the Danish Government engaging to give an Acknowledgment for them, as also for all such Wounded as were permitted to be landed after the Action of the 2d Instant, in order that they may be accounted for in favour of Great Britain, in the unfortunate Event of the Renewal of Hostilities.

Art. VI. The Coasting Trade carried on by Denmark, along all such Parts of her Coast as are included in the Operation of this Armistice, shall be unmolested by any British Ships or Vessels whatever; and Instructions given accordingly by Admiral Sir Hyde Parker.

Art. VII. This Armistice is to continue uninterrupted by the contracting Parties for the Space of fourteen Weeks from the Signature hereof, at the Expiration of which Time, it shall be in the Power of either of the said Parties, to declare a Cessation of the same, and to recommence Hostilities, upon giving fourteen Days' previous Notice.

The Conditions of this Armistice are upon all Occasions to be explained in the most liberal and loyal Manner, so as to remove all Ground for future Disputes, and facilitate the Means of bringing about the Restoration of Harmony and good Understanding between the two Kingdoms.

In Faith whereof, we the undersigned Commissioners, in virtue of our full Powers, have signed the present Armistice, and have affixed to it the Seal of our Arms.

Done on board His Britannic Majesty's Ship the London, in Copenhagen Roads, April the Ninth, One thousand eight hundred and one.

Signed

(L. S.) NELSON AND BRONTE.

(L. S.) WILLIAM STEWART.

Extract of a Letter from Captain Dixon, Commandry of His Majesty's Ship Goureaux, to Evan Nepoca, Esq; dated at Port Mahon, the 16th ultimo.

WHEREWITH I have the Honor to transmit Copies of Letters relative to the Capture of the French Frigate L'Africaine by Captain Barlow, of His Majesty's Ship Phœbe.

*Genexux, Port Mahon,
March 10, 1801.*

MY LORD,

I Have the Satisfaction to enclose a Letter from Captain Barlow, of His Majesty's Ship Phæbe, for your Lordship's Information.

This very gallant and well-fought Action, as related fully in Captain Barlow's Letter, and much more strongly marked in the Hull of the French Ship, warrants me in saying, that more Skill or effective Gunnery were never displayed in any Combat than in the present Instance.

I have the Honor to be, My Lord, &c. &c. &c.
MANLEY DIXON.

Right Honorable Lord Keith, K. B.

Phæbe, at Sea, Twenty Leagues East of MY LORD, Gibraltar, Feb. 20, 1801.

I Have the Honor to inform your Lordship that, Yesterday about Four o'Clock in the Afternoon, His Majesty's Ship under my Command being about Two Leagues to the Eastward of Gibraltar, I discovered One of the Enemy's Ships under Sails, steering with a Crowd of Sail to the Eastward: I had the good Fortune to bring her to a close Action about Half past Seven the same Evening, which continued within Pistol-Shot with unremitting Fury about Two Hours, the Enemy resolutely opposing the animated and skilful Exertions of my brave Officers and Men, until his Ship was almost a Wreck, Five Feet Water in her Hold, her Guns dismounted, and literally encumbered with Dead, the Number of which amounted to Two Hundred, and of Wounded, to One Hundred and Forty-three.

She proves to be the French Frigate L'Africaine, of Forty-four Guns, viz. Twenty-six Eighteen-Pounders on her Main-Deck, and Eighteen Nine-Pounders on her Quarter-Deck and Forecastle, a very fine Ship about Three Years old, under the Orders of the Chief of Division Saunier, whose broad Pendant was flying, and who, (with many principal Officers both of the Troops and of the Marines,) was slain in the Action, and commanded by Captain Magendie, who is amongst the Wounded.

At the Commencement of the Action she had Seven Hundred and Fifteen Men; viz. Four Hundred Troops and Artificers of various Descriptions, under the Command of General Desfourneaux, and a Crew of Three Hundred and Fifteen Officers and Seamen; also Six Brass Field-Pieces, several Thousand Stand of Arms, Ammunition, and Implements of Agriculture. She sailed from Rochefort on the 13th Instant, in Company with a Frigate, from which she parted on the following Day in a Gale of Wind.

So tremendous and decisive has been the Effect of the Fire of the Phæbe in this Contest, that I must regret the Inability of my Pen to do Justice to the Merits of those who directed it. It has been my Duty on a former Occasion to report to their Lordships the meritorious Conduct of my First Lieutenant, Holland, and the Lieutenants Bedford and Heywood; Lieutenant Weaver of the Marines; Mr. Griffiths the Master; the Warrant and Petty Officers, and the Whole of the Ship's Company, are entitled to all the Commendation in the Power of their Commander to bestow.

My Satisfaction in relating comparatively the small Loss we have sustained, is more easily imagined than described, as it amounts only to One Seaman killed, Two Officers and Ten Seamen wounded; our Damages are chiefly in Masts, Yards, Sails, and Rigging, the greatest Part of which are rendered unserviceable.

I enclose a Copy of the French Commander's Report of the Number Killed and Wounded on board L'Africaine, with the Names of the Officers; and

I have the Honor to be, My Lord, &c. &c. &c.
(Signed) ROBERT BARTLOW.

Downing-Street, April 28, 1801.

BY Dispatches received from Lord Elgin, dated Constantinople, March 31. it appears that his Lordship had received Letters from Lord Keith, stating that the Army under the Command of Sir Ralph Abercrombie effected a Landing on the 8th Instant, on the Peninsula of Aboukir, under a very heavy Fire from Cannons, Mortars, and Musketry, the Enemy having withdrawn the whole Garrison from Alexandria, and many Detachments from the Vicinity to oppose them; that after making the necessary Preparations on the 9th, 10th, and 11th, the Army advanced on the 12th to within Five Miles of Alexandria; they there took a Position with their Right towards the Sea, and their Left supported by the Lake Maadie, where Sir Sidney Smith, who was posted there with his Command of Boats, was keeping up a Communication with the Natives, and supplying the Army with fresh Provisions and Water; that on the 13th, at Seven in the Morning, the Enemy made an Attack, and were repulsed with Loss about Eleven; in the mean Time the Marines had been disembarked, and attacked by Land the Castle of Aboukir, the only Post in that Peninsula occupied by the Enemy; that on the 14th, at Sunset, when the Vessel which brought this Intelligence was under weigh, the Troops on Shore and the Gun Vessels were throwing Shot and Shells into Aboukir, and at the same Moment a Firing was heard towards Alexandria, which appeared from the Foudroyant to be a general Attack.

The Grand Vizier had marched forward from Jaffa, on the 25th February, having, according to Major Holloway's Letters to Lord Elgin, received a considerable Reinforcement.

Copy of a Letter from Admiral Milbanke, Commander in Chief of His Majesty's Ships and Vessels at Portsmouth, to Evan Nepean, Esq; dated the 24th Instant.

SIR,

I Beg you will please to lay before their Lordships the Two Letters enclosed, which I have received from Lieutenant Talbot, of the Sheerness Hired Cutter, and Lieutenant Morris, of the Lady Charlotte Hired Brig, giving me an Account of their Success in capturing a French Lugger Privateer, and in recapturing Five Vessels which she had taken.

I am, &c. M. MILBANKE.

His Majesty's Hired Armed Cutter Sheerness, at Sea, 21st April 1801.

SIR,

I Have to inform you, that I weighed from Weymouth-Roads at Five A. M. Yesterday, on seeing the Signal for an Enemy on Portland, in Company with His Majesty's Armed Brig Lady Charlotte; saw the Lugger Privateer Le Prefect de la Manche, Captain Le Froment, mounting Sixteen Two-Pounders, manned with Forty-nine Men, to the Westward, and her Prize to the Southward; as it was nearly calm I judged I should not come up with her; went in Chace of her Prize; sent the Mate in the Gig, who, at Seven P. M. boarded her near Alderney. She proves the Saker Schooner of Colchester, in Ballast. This Morning, at Half past Ten, I discovered the Lugger and Four Sail to the Westward; Lieutenant Morris, of the Lady Charlotte, used every Exertion, and was successful in recapturing them:—at Half past Two I haled the Lugger, and, as he would not bring to, fired several Shot at him, when, after carrying away several of her Sails, she struck without firing at us. Lieutenant Morris will inform you of the Particulars of his Recaptures. I am concerned to have to state One Englishman was killed, and One wounded in the Cabin of the Lugger. The good Conduct of Mr. James Bellard, Mate, I beg Leave to point out, who has on all Occasions conducted himself to my Satisfaction. I shall, on my Arrival at Plymouth, to which Port, the Wind being Easterly, I judged it prudent to put into, use every Exertion to put to Sea, and follow the Orders you have given me. I am, &c. J. H. TALBOT.

To Mark Milbanke, Esq; Admiral of the White, &c. &c. &c.

His Majesty's Hired Brig Lady Charlotte, S I R, Plymouth-Sound, April 22, 1801.

I Beg Leave to inform you, that on the 20th Instant, at Six A. M., I weighed from Portland Roads, (the Sheerneck's Cutter in Company,) on the Signal being made for an Enemy on the Coast: I stood to the Southward with the above Cutter, having Information of a Schooner in that Quarter, which a Privateer had captured that Morning. At Six P. M. on the 21st she was recaptured by the Boat of the Sheerneck: on the 22d, at Two P. M., being then between Portland and the Berry-Head, I observed a Lugger to Windward, to which the Sheerneck gave Chase, and, I am happy to say, captured after a running Fight of Half an Hour: from my Situation, being little Wind, I was unable to assist the Cutter in her Capture, I therefore sent my Boats in Chase, to the Westward, of Three Brigs and a Sloop, which they recaptured. They had been captured in the Morning by the Lugger which the Sheerneck took; but from the People on board then making their Escape in their Boats on the Approach of ours, I was unable to obtain their Names and Cargoes, except one, which is the Generous Friends, a Brig of about Two Hundred Tons, with a Cargo of Lead.

I have the Honor to be, &c. &c. &c. Admiral Milbanke. GEORGE MORRIS.

SUNDAY, MAY 3, 1801.

Downing-Street, May 3, 1801.

THE following Copy of a Letter from Lieutenant-General Sir Ralph Abercromby, K. B. to the Earl of Elgin, together with Dispatches from His Lordship to His Royal Highness the Duke of York and Lord Hawkebury, and a Letter from Colonel Anstruther to Colonel Brownrigg, of which the following are Extracts, have been this Day received.

Copy of a Letter from Sir Ralph Abercromby to the Earl of Elgin, dated Camp before Alexandria, 16th March 1801.

MY LORD,

ON the 1st Instant the Fleet arrived in Sight of Alexandria; on the 2d it anchored in Aboukir Bay; the Weather did not permit any Debarkation before the 8th; on that Day it was happily effected, under the most trying Circumstances. The Boats had near a Mile to row, and were for some Time under the Fire of Fifteen Pieces of Artillery, and the Musquetry of Two Thousand Five Hundred Men; still the Intrepidity of the Troops overcame every Difficulty. We took Eight Pieces of Cannon.

On the 9th, the Remainder of the Army was landed. On the 12th, we marched forwards to within Two Leagues of Alexandria, and One League of the Enemy, who were advantageously posted on a Ridge, with their Right to the Canal of Alexandria, and their Left to the Sea. On the 13th, we moved forwards to attack the Enemy, and to turn their Left. They did not, however, wait, but came down and attacked us. The Action was warm; but the Enemy were everywhere forced under the Walls of Alexandria. Our Loss is considerable. Although Colonel Erskine is wounded, he is doing well. He has lost a Leg. His Regiment gained great Credit, but suffered severely. No Officer of Rank is killed or dangerously wounded. Excuse this Scrawl, written on my Kneecap.

R. ABERCROMBY.

Extract of a Letter from the Earl of Elgin to His Royal Highness the Duke of York, dated Constantinople, April 4, 1801.

AS Colonel Anstruther's Letter to me, which accompanied that to Colonel Brownrigg, was written on the 16th of March, I take the Liberty of adding to your Royal Highness, that Menou having with 2000 Cavalry joined the Corps at Alexandria, attacked Sir Ralph Abercromby on the 21st. The Assault was vigorous; but the Enemy were entirely repulsed with great Loss, not however before Sir Ralph Abercromby, General Moore, General Hope, and Sir Sidney Smith, had been wounded slightly, and Colonel Abercromby had lost a Limb. Colonel Paget appears to have had a slight Wound.

Lord Keith's last Letter says all the wounded are surprisingly well, considering they are all by Cannon or Grape Shot. I may add, that my Janissary, who left Rhodes on the 27th, mentions, that some of the Troops who came there first, or had been left sick, were already so well as to have sailed from thence to join.

Nothing could have been more brilliant than our Operations appear to have been.

Extract of a Letter from Lord Elgin to Lord Hawkebury, dated Constantinople, April 14, 1801.

I HAVE the Happiness of informing your Lordship, that I have this Moment received an Express from Rhodes, dated 27th March, with a Series of private Accounts, of the successful Progress of Sir Ralph Abercromby's Army.

It appears that Menou must have set out from Cairo, on the First Intelligence of Sir Ralph Abercromby's Landing. Meanwhile our Army had advanced (under Circumstances far too honourable for the British Arms, for me to attempt relating on the imperfect Details I possess), and had taken Possession within Three Miles of Alexandria, where they had prepared against an Attack from Menou, who, with Two Thousand Cavalry, having formed a Junction with the Garrison of Alexandria, came against our Army on the 21st.

In this Action we have to regret about Five Hundred Men killed and wounded; while the Enemy positively lost Two Thousand Men killed and wounded, and Five Hundred taken Prisoners. On the preceding Wednesday, Aboukir Castle surrendered, and the British and Turkish Flags were flying there.

Extract of a Letter from Colonel Anstruther to Colonel Brounrigg, dated Camp near Alexandria, 16th March 1801.

THE Fleet sailed from Marnaxie on the 22d February, and anchored in Aboukir Bay on the 2d March. From that Day to the 7th, the Weather was so boisterous, and the Swell so great, that it was impracticable to disembark. This Circumstance gave the Enemy full Leisure to collect Troops and Artillery, and to make every necessary Preparation to oppose us. The whole Infantry of the Garrison of Alexandria, Three Hundred Cavalry, and Fourteen or Fifteen Pieces of Cannon, were placed on a Space of little more than Two Miles, from near the Castle of Aboukir to the narrow Isthmus, which forms the Boundary of the Lake. Such was the Situation in which we found Things, on the Morning of the 8th, when the Descent was made. Nothing, I believe, ever exceeded the Boldness and Perseverance with which the Boats continued to approach the Shore, under a Shower of Bullets, Shells, and Grape. Every Discharge was answered by a Shout from the Seamen, and all seemed totally insensible of Danger. The Reserve on the Right formed as if on the Parade, and in a Moment carried a Height nearly equal to, and very like to, that of Camperdown. The Left were charged by the Cavalry, the Moment they got out of the Boats. However, they drove every Thing before them; and in the Course of Three Quarters of an Hour, the Enemy was completely beaten, with the Loss of Half his Artillery. After a Halt of Two or Three Hours, in order to disembark Ammunition, and Part of General Coote's Brigade, which had not been landed, the Army advanced about Four Miles, where we remained till the 12th; the landing of Provisions and Stores being much impeded by the boisterous Weather.

On the 12th, we again marched about Five Miles, constantly skirmishing with the Advanced Guard of the Enemy, who had received a Reinforcement of Two Half-Brigades of Infantry, and One Regiment of Cavalry, from Cairo. We halted, for the Night, about Three Miles from the Enemy's Position, which seemed and proved very advantageous.

Next Morning the Army moved to attack the Right of it, marching by Lines from the Left: the Reserve covering the Movement, and moving parallel with the first Fire. As the Columns advanced into the Plain, the Enemy attacked the Heads of both with all his Cavalry, supported by a considerable Body of Infantry, and Ten or Twelve Pieces of Cannon. This Attack was repulsed by the Advanced Guard (the 90th and 92d), both of which behaved most nobly. The First Line then formed Two Lines to the Front of March, the Flanks of which were protected by the Reserve, and continued to advance in that Manner, whilst the Second Line continuing still in Column (excepting the First Brigade of it), turned the Enemy's Right, and forced him to quit his Position. The Army followed in the Order above stated, and Sir Ralph had given Orders for renewing the Attack on the Heights close to the Town, to which the Enemy retreated; but on examining them with Attention, it was thought that they were under the Guns of the Forts, and could not probably be kept if carried; the Army took up in the Evening the Ground which the Enemy had quitted.

The Force the Enemy opposed to us appeared about Five Thousand Infantry, Six Hundred Cavalry, and a large Proportion of Artillery; the Ground being particularly favourable to the Two last. The Movements, although under a constant Canonade, were regular and accurate: The General, in this last Action, had his Horse shot under him.

The Position we occupy is good; it cuts off the Communication between Alexandria and the Nile, excepting through the Desert: Our Supplies are conveyed by Means of the Lake with Ease and Security.

Downing-Street, May 9, 1801.

A DISPATCH addressed to the Right Honorable Henry Dundas, of which the following is a Copy, was this Day received at the Office of the Right Honorable Lord Hobart, One of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, from General Sir Ralph Abercromby, K. B. Commander in Chief of His Majesty's Troops serving in the Mediterranean.

*Camp before Alexandria,
March 16, 1801.*

SIR,

ALTHOUGH it was not originally my Intention to have commented the Operations of the British Army in Egypt on the Side of Alexandria, yet Circumstances arose which induced me to change my Opinion. We were much longer delayed on the Coast of Asia Minor, than we had at first any Reason to apprehend; and we were ultimately obliged to fail from Marmarice in a very imperfect state of Preparation. I am fully sensible of the Exertions of His Majesty's Ambassador at the Ottoman Porte, as well as of the Quarter-Master-General, and the other Officers who were sent forward to provide for the Necessities of the Army. Our Delays originated from other Causes. For a considerable Time previous to our sailing the Weather was extremely boisterous, and the Winds contrary. The Moment that it became practicable to sail with so large a Fleet, Lord Keith put to Sea; we left Marmarice on the 22d of February, and came in Sight of Alexandria on the 1st of March.

On the 2d, the Fleet anchored in Aboukir Bay. Until the 7th the Sea ran high, and no Disembarkation could be effected; on that Day every Arrangement was completed, and on the 8th, the Troops forming the First Division, consisting of the Reserve under the Command of Major-General Moore, the Brigade of Guards, under the Honourable Major-General Ludlow, and Part of the First Brigade, under the Command of Major-General Coote, got into the Boats early in the Morning; they had, in general, from Five to Six Miles to row, and did not arrive at the Point of Landing till Ten o'Clock. The Front of Disembarkation was narrow, and a Hill, which commanded the Whole, seemed almost inaccessible. The Enemy were fully aware of our Intention, were in Force, and had every Advantage on their Side. The Troops, however, notwithstanding their being exposed to a very severe Cannonade, and under the Fire of Grape-Shot, made good their Landing, ascended the Hill with an Intrepidity scarcely to be paralleled, and forced the Enemy to retire, leaving behind him Seven Pieces of Artillery and a Number of Horses.

The Troops that ascended the Hill were the 23d Regiment, and the four Flank Companies of the 40th, under the Command of Colonel Spencer, whose Coolness and good Conduct Major-General Moore has mentioned to me in the highest Terms of Approbation. It is impossible to pass over the good Order in which the 28th and the 42d Regiments landed, under the Command of Brigadier-General Oakes, who was attached to the Reserve under Major-General Moore; and the Troops in general lost not a Moment in remedying any little Disorder which became unavoidable in a Landing under such Circumstances. The Disembarkation of the Army continued on that and the following Day.

The Troops which landed on the 8th advanced three Miles the same Day; and on the 12th the whole Army moved forward, and came within Sight of the Enemy, who was formed on an advantageous Ridge, with his Right to the Canal of Alexandria, and his Left towards the Sea.

It was determined to attack them on the Morning of the 13th; and in consequence the Army marched in two Lines by the Left, with an Intention to turn their right Flank.

The Troops had not been long in Motion before the Enemy descended from the Heights on which they were formed, and attacked the leading Brigades of both Lines, which were commanded by Major-General Cradock and Major-General the Earl of Cavan.

The 90th Regiment formed the Advanced Guard of the front Line, and the 92d that of the second; both Battalions suffered considerably, and behaved in such a Manner as to merit the Praise both of Courage and Discipline. Major-General Cradock immediately formed his Brigade to meet the Attack made by the Enemy; and the Troops changed their Position with a Quickness and Precision which did them the greatest Honor. The Remainder of the Army followed so good an Example, and were immediately in a Situation not only to face, but to repel the Enemy. The Reserve, under the Command of Major-General Moore, which was on the Right, on the Change of the Position of the Army, moved on in Column, and covered the Right Flank. The Army continued to advance, pushing the Enemy with the greatest Vigour, and ultimately forcing them to put themselves under the Protection of the fortified Heights which form the principal Defence of Alexandria.

It was intended to have attacked them in this their last Position; for which Purpose the Reserve under the Command of Major-General Moore, which had remained in Column during the whole of the Day, was brought forward, and the Second Line, under the Command of Major-General Hutchinson, marched to the Left across a Part of the Lake Mariotis, with a View to attack the Enemy on both Flanks; but on reconnoitring their Position, and not being prepared to occupy it after it should be carried, Prudence required that the Troops who had behaved so bravely, and who were still willing to attempt any Thing, however arduous, should not be exposed to a certain Loss, when the Extent of the Advantage could not be ascertained. They were therefore withdrawn, and now occupy a Position with their Right to the Sea, and their Left to the Canal of Alexandria and Lake Mariotis, about a League from the Town of Alexandria.

I have the greatest Satisfaction in saying, that the Conduct of the British and Foreign Troops under my Command is deserving of the highest Praise; their Courage and their Discipline have been equally conspicuous.

To all the General Officers I am indebted for their Zeal and Intelligence.

From the Honorable Brigadier-General Hope, Adjutant-General, and Lieutenant-Colonel Anstruther, Quarter-Master-General, I have received every Testimony of Zeal, and the most able Assistance in the Operations of the Army; and to the other Officers of the General Staff, I feel Obligations.

On the 8th the Arrangements made by Lord Keith, were such as to enable us to land at once a Body of Six Thousand men.

The Honorable Captain Cochrane, and those other Captains and Officers of the Royal Navy who were entrusted with the Disembarkation, not only of the Troops, but of the Artillery, Ammunition, Provisions, and Stores of all Kinds, have exerted themselves in such a Manner as to claim the warmest Acknowledgments of the whole Army.

Sir Sidney Smith, and the other Captains and Officers of the Navy under his Command who landed with the Army, have been indefatigable in their Exertions in forwarding the Service on which they are employed.

The Enemy have left a small Garrison in Aboukir Castle; it has been necessary to bring up a few Pieces of heavy Artillery, and there is Reason to believe that it will speedily surrender.

Majors Mac Kerras and Fletcher, of the Royal Engineers, who went down in the Penelope Frigate to survey the Coast of Egypt, a short Time before we sailed from Marmarice, were unfortunately surprised in a small Boat in Aboukir Bay; the former was killed, and the latter taken Prisoner.

Our Communication with the Fleet is at present kept up by Means of the Lake of Aboukir. We have been fortunate enough to find Water sufficient for the Supply of the Army; and we begin to derive some Supplies from the Country.

I have the Honor to enclose herewith Returns of the Killed and Wounded in the Actions of the 8th and 13th Instant, together with a Return of the Artillery taken from the Enemy on those Days.

I have the Honor to be, &c.

R. ABERCROMBY.

P. S. I have had no Means of ascertaining the Loss of the Enemy, but it must have been considerable.

Copy of a Letter from Admiral Lord Keith, K. B. Commander in Chief of His Majesty's Ships and Vessels in the Mediterranean, to Evan Neapean, Esq; dated on board the Foudeyvant, in the Bay of Aboukir, 10th March 1801.

SIR,

MY Dispatches of the 22d ult. by the Speedwell, will have acquainted you, for the Information of the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, that the Armament on that Day quitted the Harbour of Marmarice for this Place, which the whole Fleet reached on the 2d Instant, the Turkish Gun Boats and Raicks excepted, all of which bore up, by Night, for Macri, Cyprus, and other Ports, during the Prevalence of strong Westerly Gales that we encountered on the Passage.

Too much of the Day of our Arrival here had elapsed; before all the Ships could get to Anchorage, to admit of the landing being effected before the Approach of Night; and an unfortunate Succession of strong Northerly Gales, attended by a heavy Swell, rendered it impossible to disembark before the 8th. The necessary Preparations were made on the preceding Evening. The Boats began to receive the Troops at Two o'Clock in the Morning, and at Three the Signal was made for their proceeding to rendezvous near the Mondovi, anchored about a Gun Shot from the Shore, where it had been determined that they were to be assembled and properly arranged: But such was the Extent of the Anchorage occupied by so large a Fleet, and so great the Distance of many of them from any one given Point, that it was not till Nine the Signal could be made for the Boats to advance towards the Shore.

The whole Line immediately began to move with great Celerity towards the Beach, between the Castle of Aboukir and the Entrance of the Sed, under the Direction of the Honourable Captain Cochrane, of His Majesty's Ship the Ajax, assisted by Captains Stevenson, Scott, Larmour, Apthorpe, and Morrison, of the Europa, Stately, Diadem, Druid, and Thibbe, and the respective Agents of Transports, the right Flank being protected by the Cruelle Cutter, and the Dangerouse, and Janissary Gun Vessels, and the Left, by the Entrepreneau Cutter, Malta Schooner, and Negresse Gun Vessel, with two Launches of the Fleet on each, armed for the Purpose of supplying the Places of the Turkish Gun Vessels, of whose Service I had been deprived. Captain Sir Sidney Smith of the Tigre, with the Captains Ribolean, Guion, Saville, Burn, and Hillyar, of the Altrea, Eurus, Experiment, Blonde, and Niger, appointed, with a Detachment of Seamen, to co-operate with the Army, had the Charge of the Launches, with the Field Artillery accompanying the Troops. The Tartarus and Fury were placed in proper Situations for throwing Shot and Shells with Advantage; and the Petterell, Cameleon, and Minorea, were moored as near as possible, with their Broadides to the Shore.

The Enemy had not failed to avail himself of the unavoidable Delays to which we had been exposed, for strengthening the naturally difficult Coast to which we were to approach. The whole Garrison of Alexandria, said to amount to near three Thousand Men, reinforced with many small Detachments that had been observed to advance from the Rossetta Branch, was appointed for its Defence. Field Pieces were placed on the most commanding Heights, and in the Intervals of the numerous Sand Hills which cover the Shore, all of which were lined with Musquetry; the Beach on either Wing being flanked with Cannon, and Parties of Cavalry held in Readiness to advance.

The Fire of the Enemy was successively opened from their Mortars and Field Pieces, as the Boats got within their Reach; and as they approached to the Shore the excessive Discharge of Grape-Shot and of Musquetry from behind the Sand-Hills seemed to threaten them with Destruction, while the Castle of Aboukir on the Right Flank maintained a constant and harassing Discharge of large Shot and Shells; but the Ardour of our Officers and Men was not to be damped. No Moment of Hesitation intervened. The Beach was arrived at, a Footing obtained; the Troops advanced, and the Enemy forced to relinquish all the advantageous Positions which they had held.

The Boats returned without Delay for the Second Division; and before the Evening the whole Army, with few Exceptions, was landed, with such Articles of Provisions and Stores as required the most immediate Attention.

I refer to the General's Report for the Loss sustained by the Army in this dangerous and difficult Service. I enclose the Casualties of the Squadron and Transports, and feel much Satisfaction in conveying to their Lordships my full Testimony to the Merits of all the Officers and Men employed under my Orders on this arduous Occasion.

I have the Honor to be, &c.

DISPATCHES, of which the following are Copies, addressed to the Right Honorable Henry Dundas, were last Night received at the Office of the Right Honorable Lord Hobart, one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, from Lieutenant-General Trigge, Commander in Chief of His Majesty's Forces in the Leeward and Windward Charibbee Islands.

On board His Majesty's Ship Leviathan, at Sea, SIR, 22d March, 1801.

HAVING already detailed in my Dispatches of the 1st, 14th, and 15th Instant, (Nos. 7, 8, and 9.) the various Arrangements that had been made to enable me to carry into Effect His Majesty's Commands, communicated in your Letters of the 14th and 31st of January, I have now the Honor to acquaint you, that having been joined on the 16th, at St. John's, Antigua, the appointed Rendezvous, by the 8th West India Regiment, from English Harbour, we failed the same Evening, with the Force there collected, consisting of a Detachment of the Royal Artillery, the 3d and 7th Regiments of Foot, and the 8th West India Regiment, but owing to the Calms and light Winds that prevailed, we made so little Progress, as not to arrive at St. Bartholomew's, until the Morning of the 20th, although the Passage is generally made in the Course of a few Hours.

Rear Admiral Duckworth, conceiving it might be useful to order the Andromeda from Antigua, with a View to prevent any Vessels communicating with the Island of St. Bartholomew, Captain Bradby was accordingly dispatched on that Service, of which Opportunity I availed myself to send Lieutenant Colonel Shipley, the commanding Engineer, for the Purpose of making Observations, and to discover where a Landing might be made with the least Risk to the Troops. The Report of Lieutenant Colonel Shipley, and Captain Bradby, was very correct, and, had Occasion required us to have acted on their Information, would no doubt have proved of very essential Consequence, in facilitating the Reduction of the Island.

A Disposition was made for landing on the Morning of the 19th; but being becalmed the Whole of that Day, in Sight of the Island, and thereby losing the Advantage that would have been derived from a sudden and unexpected Attack, together with the Information we had received by a Vessel lately from St. Bartholomew, that the Governor was unprepared, and indeed possessed no Means of Defence, we determined at once to send in a Summons, which was accordingly done on the Morning of the 20th, and I am happy to acquaint you was followed by the immediate Surrender of the Island.

I have the Honor to transmit to you herewith, for your more particular Information, Copies of the Summons and Capitulation, together with a Return of the Ordnance found in the Island of St. Bartholomew.

I have the Honor to be, &c. &c. &c.

His Majesty's Ship Leviathan, at Sea, 27th March 1801.

SIR,
I Have the Honor to acquaint you, that the Island of St. Martin surrendered to the British Forces on the 24th Instant.

It being considered of much Consequence that the least Delay possible should take place after the Surrender of St. Bartholomew, every Exertion was made to complete the Arrangements necessary to enable us to leave that Island, which were finally concluded on the 22d.

At the Moment when we were about to sail, the Profelyte from England, with Nine Transports under Convoy, were in Sight, on which we immediately ly weighed, and joined them about Ten o'Clock that Night, when we found that One Transport was missing, with Two Hundred Men of the 64th Regiment on board. On the following Day at Noon, we were also joined by the Coromandel, with the 2d West India Regiment.

The Ships of War and the Transports, during the Night of the 23d, drew as near to the Island of St. Martin as appeared consistent with Safety, and at Daylight the following Morning stood into Little Cole Bay.

The Troops having been divided into two Brigades, a Disposition was made for Landing. The First Brigade, under the Command of Brigadier-General Fuller, was composed of the 1st Battalion of the Royals, the 11th Regiment, and 2d West India Regiment, and was destined to make an Attack on Fort Chesterfield, near the Town of Marigot, situated in the French Quarter of the Island.

The Second Brigade, commanded by Brigadier-General Maitland, consisted of Six Companies of the 3d Regiment, the 64th, and Four Companies of the 8th West India; and was intended for the Attack of Fort Amsterdam, and the Town of Philipsburgh in the Dutch Quarter, a Proportion of Field Artillery being attached to each Brigade.

The Bay fixed on for the Troops to Land in being in the Dutch Quarter, and contiguous to Fort Amsterdam, the 2d Brigade was in consequence landed first, which was effected without Opposition. During this Operation, the Transport arrived with the part of the 64th Regiment, which had been missing, and being ordered to run close in with the Shore, the Men were landed in Time to join their Regiment.

Brigadier-General Maitland, having gained the Heights towards Fort Amsterdam, was soon opposed by detached Parties of the Enemy. The 8th, West India Regiment, being principally engaged on those Occasions, was always successful.

It appeared that almost the whole Force of the Enemy had been drawn to the Dutch Quarter, whereas it was expected that the principal Resistance would have been made at Fort Chesterfield.

The Enemy, rather than await an Attack from our Troops, which they were led to expect, by our possessing the Heights at no great Distance from the Fort and Town, determined to attack, with a considerable Part of their Force, one of the Positions which we occupied, and brought out Two Field Pieces with about Three Hundred Men for the Purpose.

The Body of our Troops, on which this Attack was made, consisted of Four Companies of the Sixty-fourth Regiment, under the immediate Command of Lieutenant-Colonel Pakenham, and Two Companies of the 8th West India Regiment, who evinced, on this Occasion, the greatest Courage and Steadiness, repulsed and pursued the Enemy, and took Possession of the Two Field Pieces.

The Loss of the Enemy, which they themselves state to be much more considerable, was certainly not less than between Fifty and Sixty killed and wounded, which must appear a great Number when compared with the few Men we had wounded in this Affair.

That the 64th, one of the finest Regiments I ever saw, commanded as it was, should have behaved in a distinguished Manner is not surprising; but I have peculiar Satisfaction in being enabled to add, that the 8th West India Regiment, formed within the last Three Years, and composed almost entirely of new Negroes, who never had before seen an Enemy, engaged with a Degree of Gallantry, and behaved in a Manner that would do Honor to any Troops.

After the Attack now mentioned, the Enemy made no further Attempt, but between Four and Five o'Clock in the Afternoon a Communication was opened, and the Capitulation finally concluded by Twelve that Night.

The First Brigade, when landed, proceeded to the French Quarter without Opposition, and took Possession of Lee's Hill, which commands Fort Chesterfield, and had prepared to commence an Attack, which was ordered to be made on that Post at Day-break on the 25th.

The Crews of some Privateers, who formed a considerable Part of the Enemy's Force, finding the Attack on our Position had failed, returned to their Ships and put to Sea.

The Regular Troops, to the Number of at least Three Hundred and Twenty, had laid down their Arms before my Departure; and it is probable there were still more who had not then surrendered.

The Officers of the Navy and the Seamen went through the laborious Task of disembarking the Troops and dragging the Guns up steep and rugged Hills, with a Spirit and Cheerfulness highly honorable to themselves and gratifying to those who witnessed their Zeal and Exertions. Were I merely to say that Rear-Admiral Duckworth gave every possible Assistance, I might be understood only to mean that he did his Duty; an Expression totally inadequate to convey what I feel, as, exclusive of all that can be comprehended under the most extensive Meaning of the Word Duty, his many Acts of Kindness must be remembered by me with Gratitude, and by every Officer and Soldier serving on this Expedition.

I have also much Pleasure in bearing Testimony to the Zeal manifested by the Whole of the Troops, whose Conduct was so highly creditable, as to entitle them to my warmest Praise.

It likewise affords me particular Satisfaction to have an Opportunity of expressing, through this Channel, my Acknowledgments to Brigadiers General Fuller and Maitland, for the Manner in which they conducted the Services entrusted to them, and to Lieutenant-Colonel Gleditses, the Adjutant-General, Lieutenant-Colonel Laye, commanding the Royal Artillery, and Lieutenant-Colonel Shipley, the commanding Engineer, for the unremitting Exertions which they used in their respective Situations, as well as to the Officers commanding the several Corps, for the Attention and Alacrity so eminently conspicuous in the Discharge of their Duty.

I have the Honor to enclose to you herewith, Copies of the Summons and Articles of Capitulation, on which the Island of Saint Martin has been surrendered to His Majesty, together with a Return of the Ordnance taken Possession of, and a Return of the wounded.

I have the Honor to be, &c. &c. &c.

SIR,

HAVING completed such Arrangements as appeared necessary for the Security of Saint Martin's, we were enabled to leave that Island on the Afternoon of the 26th, and arrived here Yesterday.

The Ships of War and Transports having anchored at Noon, and the Troops being immediately disposed in the Order of Landing, the Summons was sent in without further Delay, and I have the Satisfaction to acquaint you, that the Islands of Saint Thomas and St. John, together with their Dependencies, were surrendered on Capitulation to His Majesty's Troops, and taken Possession of in the Afternoon.

I have done myself the Honor to enclose to you a Copy of the Articles of the Capitulation, on which these Islands have been put into our Possession; but have conceived it unnecessary to transmit the Summons, it being similar to that of Saint Bartholomew, a Copy of which accompanies this Dispatch; and also to annex, for your Information, a Return of the Ordnance found in this Island.

I have charged my Aid-de-Camp, Major Browne, with the Delivery of this Dispatch, as well as of those containing Information of the Surrender of the Islands of Saint Bartholomew and St. Martin, to whom I beg Leave to refer you for such further Particulars as you may require, having no doubt but you will find him perfectly prepared to afford you every necessary Information.

Head-Quarters, St. Croix, April 1, 1801.

SIR,

I Have the Honor to acquaint you that we sailed from Saint Thomas's on the Evening of the 30th Ultimo, and arrived off this Island the following Day.

Having issued Orders to the Troops preparatory to their Landing, and made the Arrangements necessary for that Purpose, it was judged inexpedient to take any further Steps until the Summons had been sent in, which was immediately done; and I have the Honour to acquaint you that the Island of Saint Croix was surrendered to his Majesty in the course of the Afternoon; but it being then too late in the Day to take Possession, it was deferred until this Morning, when the British Troops were landed, and marched into the different Forts and Towns of Christianstadt and Frederickstadt.

I have the Honor to enclose for your Information a Copy of the Articles of Capitulation, and of the Governor-General's Reply to the Summons; as likewise a Return of the Ordnance found in the several Forts and Batteries.

Captain McMahon, of the 53d Regiment, my Aid-de-Camp, will have the Honor of presenting this Dispatch, who I am persuaded you will find sufficiently prepared to afford you such further Information as you may wish to be in Possession of.

I have the Honor, to be, &c. &c. &c.

The Right Honorable Henry Dundas, &c. &c. &c.

P. S. I also have the Honor to enclose, for your Information, a Return of the Prisoners of War belonging to the Land Forces, who surrendered at the different Islands.

It must be satisfactory to you to know that the present Crop of Sugar in this Island will amount to Thirty-six Thousand Hogheads, containing Half a Ton each.

By his Excellency William Anthony Lindemann, Governor-General of the Danish West India Islands, to their Excellencies Lieutenant-General Thomas Trigge and Rear-Admiral John Thomas Duckworth, Commanders in Chief of his Britannic Majesty's Forces, &c.

The Summons delivered to me from your Excellencies has greatly astonished me, as I am unacquainted with any Rupture between the King my Master and his Britannic Majesty.

Participating in those Sentiments of Humanity your Excellencies have expressed in the said Summons, and desirous to prevent an unnecessary Effusion of Blood, I here enclose the Terms on which I offer to surrender the Island of Saint Croix.

The Officers Bearers of this are authorized to treat and sign.

Admiralty-Office, May 11, 1801.

CAPTAIN EKINS, late of His Majesty's Ship Amphitrite, arrived last Night with Dispatches from Rear-Admiral Duckworth, Commander in Chief of His Majesty's Ships and Vessels at Barbadoes and the Leeward Islands, to Evan Nepean, Esq; Secretary of the Admiralty, of which the following are Copies:

SIR, Leviathan, at Sea, March 27, 1801.

HAVING consulted with Lieutenant-General Triggs, on the Subject of the Orders of the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, we determined not to wait for the expected Reinforcements, but collect the Troops that the General thought might be employed with Dispatch; and we sailed on the 16th, with about One Thousand Five Hundred Troops, for the Purpose of attacking the various Islands specified in our Orders, the General and myself considering it most judicious to commence with the weathermost one St. Bartholomew, though by Calms and very variable Winds we were prevented from getting to Grand Saline Bay (our intended Place of Landing) till the Morning of the 20th, when, having prepared every Thing for that Purpose, and placed the Andromeda, L'Unité, and Drake Brig to cover it, the General and myself deemed it expedient to prevent Delay, by sending Brigadier-General Fuller, and Captain King of the Leviathan, with a Summons, which, after some little Hesitation, was accepted, and the Capitulation I transmit, entered into. I then detached the Andromeda with the Alexandria Tender to assist in watching St. Thomas's, when every Exertion was used to land a Garrison, and form such temporary Arrangements as the Urgency of the Service would admit; all of which were effected by the Morning of the 22d. We found here Two Swedish Ships nearly laden with Produce of this Country, a Danish Ship in Ballast, besides a Variety of small Craft, Swedish, and Three small French Vessels; and I left Captain Thomas Harvey, in L'Unité, to co-operate with the Commandant of that Island, and at Ten o'Clock A. M. were in the Act of weighing, when Ten Sail were seen from the Malt-Head, I therefore ordered the Drake Brig and L'Eclair Schooner to reconnoitre, keeping the Wind, myself concluding they were our Troops from England, which the General and myself had sent Orders to Barbadoes to follow us after landing their Sick, with Women and Children; this, from light Airs, was not ascertained till Ten o'Clock at Night, when they proved as conjectured, and the Profelyte joined in the Afternoon of the 24th. Upon this Accumulation of Force, the General and myself, after some Deliberation, judged it would be highly injurious to His Majesty's Service, and render Saint Bartholomew very unsafe, if we omitted attacking the Island of Saint Martin: We therefore, (though it was not mentioned in our Instructions,) prompted by the Rectitude of our Intentions, decided upon endeavouring to reduce it, and at Midnight of the 22d bore away for that Purpose; but the unprecedented Variableness of the Winds prevented our getting there till Daylight of the 24th; and on the Afternoon of the 23d the Coronandel joined with the 2d West India Regiment, when, having placed Captain Fowke in the Profelyte, with the Drake Brig in Coles Bay to cover the Landing under the Direction of Captain Ekins of the Amphitrite, (who had been sick at Barbadoes, but joined me in the Profelyte, and handsomely volunteered this Service,) which commenced at Half past Eight o'Clock; and with his judicious Arrangements, the Second Brigade of near One Thousand Five Hundred Men under Brigadier-General Maitland, were on Shore with their Field Pieces, and One Hundred Seamen by Eleven o'Clock, as was the First Brigade of One Thousand Eight Hundred, under Brigadier-General Fuller, by Two o'Clock, with their Field Pieces, and One Hundred Seamen; the Second Brigade directly proceeded on to take the Heights in the Approach to the Town of Philipsburgh, which was quickly effected, though not without some smart skirmishing, which afterwards brought on a short Action, in which some Companies of the 64th, under Lieut. Col. Pakenham, and Two Companies of the Eighth West India Regiment, displayed great Gallantry; beat the Enemy, and took Two Field Pieces; at this Time Brigadier-General Fuller, with the First Brigade, marched on to take the Heights above Fort Chesterfield, or Margot, where we had Reason to expect the greatest Resistance; but the former Check (in which the Enemy lost from Fifty to Sixty killed and wounded) evinced that Opposition could only lead to Destruction; and they embraced a verbal Summons (sent in by Brigadier-General Maitland, at Five o'Clock) to propose their Terms at Nine; when Lieutenant General Trigge and Self, being on the Spot, the Capitulation was signed and exchanged by Midnight of the 24th, of which I transmit a Copy for their Lordship's Information. At the Commencement of the Attack we observed in Great Bay, Two Privateer Brigs, of Twelve Guns each, and a Schooner of the same Force, with a Merchant Ship, Brig, and Nine or Ten small Craft; and as I considered them likely to attempt getting off in the Course of the Night, if it was found necessary to surrender, I ordered the Hornet and Fanny armed Brig, to work up to Great Bay, to prevent such Attempt from succeeding, and at Sunset sent the Drake to aid on that Service; but, unfortunately, the Two First did not get far enough to Windward to fulfil my Intention, by which Means One of the Brigs and the Schooner got out, with a few small Vessels, Five of which were taken; but I am to lament the Brig and Schooner getting away, after a Chase of Twenty-four Hours, by the Hornet and Fanny. We found remaining in the Bay, One Brig Privateer of Twelve Guns, an English captured Ship, a Merchant Brig, Four small Schooners, and a Sloop; the Particulars of which my Time would not allow me to collect, as I began to embark the Troops, Ordnance, &c. &c. the next Morning, the 25th, and sailed for Saint Thomas's the Afternoon of the 26th, leaving the Profelyte, Hornet, and Drake, to assist in the Arrangements necessary for the Security of the Island, and Two Transports to embark the Garrison in, which consisted of between Three and Four Hundred, besides nearly a similar Number which got away in the Brig, &c.

I have ordered the Profelyte to relieve L'Unité, keeping with her the Drake for the assisting Protection of the Two Islands, and L'Unité to conduct the Prisoners to Martinique, arranging and getting ready to convoy the Trade home.

I cannot conclude this Account of our successful Proceedings, for their Lordships' Information, without paying that grateful Tribute which is due to Lieutenant-General Trigge for his kind Support and Concurrence in every Instance, and for his anxious Endeavours to preserve that particular Harmony and Unanimity between the Army and Navy, which must always contribute to the Success of every Undertaking. I should not do Justice to the Officers and Men serving under my Command, if I was, to omit assuring their Lordships they have performed the harassing and laborious Service they have been employed in highly to my Satisfaction, and with an Alacrity characteristic of British Seamen; and I have the Honor to be, Sir, &c. &c. &c.

J. T. DUCKWORTH.

By Lieutenant-General Thomas Trigge and Rear Admiral John Thomas Duckworth, Commanders in Chief of His Britannic Majesty's Land and Sea Forces employed at the Windward and Leeward Islands, &c. &c. &c.

THE King, our Master, having viewed with the deepest Concern the unjust Combination lately entered into between the Courts of Sweden, Denmark, and Russia, to support the Principles of an Armed Neutrality, contrary to the Law of Nations and the positive Stipulation of Treaties, His Majesty, therefore, feels himself called upon to adopt such Measures, as a Conduct so hostile to the just and ancient Privileges of the British Flag requires, on his Part, for the Maintenance and Preservation of the best Rights of His People, and in Support of the most solemn Treaties, thereby violated, and to consider, though with the greatest Reluctance, those Courts as Enemies of Great Britain.

Feeling that Resistance on your Part would only tend to increase the Calamities of War, which it is our most earnest Desire to alleviate, we have sent this Summons by Brigadier-General Fuller, of the Land Forces, and Captain King, of the Royal Navy, requiring you to surrender the Island of Saint Bartholomew, together with all Ships and Vessels, Stores, and Public Property of every Description.

Knowing how ardently it is the Desire of our Royal Master to avert the Sufferings of Individuals, and it being no less our own Disposition and Wish to soften their Distresses, we take this Opportunity to declare, that the private Property of the Inhabitants will be respected, as well as whatever belongs to the Subjects of the United States of America; and in case of immediate Submission, that the Laws, Customs, and Religious Usages of the Island shall not be infringed.

Dated on board His Majesty's Ship Leviathan, this 20th Day of March 1801.

(Signed) THOMAS TRIGGE, Lieut. General,
J. T. DUCKWORTH, Rear-Admiral.

His Excellency the Governor of
St. Bartholomew.

His Majesty's Ship Leviathan,
March 20, 1801.

SIR,
His Majesty's friendly Disposition towards the Interests of the United States of America, and their Inhabitants, corresponding so perfectly with our own—We, in order the more certainly to prevent any Cause of Misunderstanding on the present Occasion, have taken this Opportunity to express our just Expectation, that the Subjects of America, at present residing in the Island of St. Bartholomew, will not lend themselves to any collusive Transactions, with a View of preventing such Property from coming into Possession of the Forces under our Command, as of Right ought to be forfeited to the Crown of Great Britain. As whatever Reluctance we might feel in adopting a Measure so extremely disagreeable to us, it nevertheless would be our Duty, not only to resist, in every instance, such unbecoming Proceedings, but be the Means of obliging us to act against whoever might be concerned in a Transaction of so improper a Nature, in a Manner which we would ever wish to avoid. At the Time of making this Communication, we hope not to be understood as conceiving any Thing of the Nature now alluded to, at all likely to occur. We feel satisfied of the contrary, and have noticed it merely as a Measure of Precaution to those who might otherwise have been unwarily led into a Step, without being aware of the Consequences attendant.

We have the Honor to be, &c. &c. &c.

(Signed)

THOS. TRIGGE, Lieutenant General.

THOMAS TRIGGE, Lieut. General.

JOHN THOMAS DUCKWORTH, Rear-Admiral.

By their Excellencies Lieutenant-General Thomas Trigge, and Rear-Admiral John Thomas Duckworth, Commanders in Chief of his Britannic Majesty's Forces, &c. &c.

THE Superiority of the Force which it has pleased His Britannic Majesty to place under our joint Command, rendering every Hope of Resistance, on your Part, altogether ineffectual, we, in order to avert the Consequences that so evidently would attend any Opposition which, from a vain Expectation of Success, you might be induced to make, and to give you the only Opportunity in our Power to afford, of avoiding the Effects so certainly to be apprehended, have taken this Means of manifesting the Moderation with which it is our Desire to proceed :

And we do therefore require you, in the Name of the King our Master, immediately to surrender into our Possession the Island of St. Martin, as likewise all Stores and Vessels, together with the Property of every Description.

Done on board His Britannic Majesty's Ship Leviathan, this 24th Day of March, 1801.

Leviathan, Saint Thomas,

March 30, 1801.

SIR,
HAvING had the Honor of stating to you, for the Information of the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, the successful Proceedings of this Armament to the Twenty-seventh, I have now further to add, that we arrived off this Island at Daylight of the Twenty-eighth, having previously concerted with the General the Arrangement for landing at Black Point Bay, about Three Miles to the Westward of the Town; but from the Wind throwing off the Land we were not able to obtain Anchorage till Noon, when I directed Captain Bradby in the Andromeda, with the Alexandria Tender, to place themselves as close to the Beach as the Water would admit to cover the Landing; which Service was ably executed: I also ordered the Southampton, Diana, and Amphitrite, (which had been previously directed here to prevent Succour from being thrown in,) to anchor close off the Town, to be in Readiness to attack the Forts, if requisite. This Service performed, and the Troops all ready to land, Lieutenant-General Trigge and Self were of Opinion it would promote His Majesty's Service to summon the Island, which was sent by Brigadier-General Maitland, and Captain King of the Leviathan, when a Capitulation was agreed on for this Island, Saint John, and its Dependencies (with the Delay only of the Governor being permitted to send Officers to ascertain that our Force was formidable as represented;) and Yesterday Morning we took Possession of the Forts, &c. since when I have been constantly employed in landing a Garrison, and forming temporary Regulations, to move for our next Object Santa Cruz this Evening, that my Time will not admit of my giving their Lordships an exact Detail of the Vessels in Harbour, but there was One Man of War Brig of Eighteen Guns which appears a very fine Vessel, and fit for His Majesty's Service. Herewith I send a Copy of the Capitulation.—This, with my other Dispatch of the Twenty-seventh, I forward by my First Lieutenant, Charles Marshall Gregory, an Officer of great Merit and Activity, who has been recently employed as acting Captain of the Amphitrite, and to whom I must refer their Lordships for further Particulars; and I have the Honor to be,

Sir, &c. &c. &c.

Leviathan, off Christiansfad, Santa Cruz, April 2, 1801.

SIR,

MY Letters of the 27th and 30th ult. (of which I now transmit Duplicates) having given you Information for the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty of our fortunate and successful Proceedings in the Execution of their Lordships' Orders to the Surrender of Saint Thomas's, (with the Deviation of venturing to attack Saint Martin's) and my Intentions of leaving Saint Thomas's for Santa Cruz that Evening, the 30th, I now have the further Pleasure to acquaint you that we were off the Town of Christiansfad at Day-light of the 31st, and having formed the Arrangements for Landing, and founded to the eastward of the Town, to ascertain that it could be safely effected, Lieutenant-General Trigge and myself thought proper to send a Summons similar to that of Saint Bartholomew: Upon which confidential Officers were sent off by the Governor-General Lindeman, and the accompanying Capitulation entered into, the whole of which, I hope, will meet with his Majesty's and their Lordships' Approbation; and as I consider an expeditious Account thereof, under the present Circumstances, with the Northern Powers, may be very desirable, I dispatch the Fauny Hired Armed Brig, and must defer giving any Detail of the Vessels in the Ports, as I have not yet been able to get any exact List. Captain Ekhus, of the Amphitrite, having been much reduced from a Fever, and by his Exertions again brought on violently his Complaint, I have thought it Humanity to entrust that valuable Officer with my Dispatches, and beg leave to refer their Lordships to him for any further Particulars.

I intend giving an acting Order to Captain John Miller Garner, of the Hawke, and my First Lieutenant George William Blamey, an Officer whose Exertions in the present Expedition entitles him to my warmest Support.

I should feel very remiss was I to close this without mentioning to their Lordships the Aid I have received from my Captain E. D. King, in this harassing Service; and I have the Honor to be,

Sir, &c. &c. &c.

J. T. DUCKWORTH.

Head-Quarters, Camp, Four Miles from Alexandria, April 5th, 1801.

SIR,
 I Have the Honor to inform you, that, after the Affair of the 13th of March, the Army took a Position about Four Miles from Alexandria, having a sandy Plain in their Front, the Sea on their Right, and the Canal of Alexandria (at present dry) and the Lake of Aboukir on their Left. In this Position we remained without any material Occurrence taking Place till the 21st of March, when the Enemy attacked us with nearly the whole of their collected Force, amounting probably to Eleven or Twelve Thousand Men. Of Fourteen Demi-Brigades of Infantry, which the French have in this Country, Twelve appear to have been engaged, and all their Cavalry, with the Exception of One Regiment.

The Enemy made the following Disposition of their Army:

General Lauffe was on their Left, with Four Demi-Brigades of Infantry, and a considerable Body of Cavalry, commanded by General Roize; Generals Friant and Rampon were in the Centre, with Five Demi-Brigades; General Regnier on the Right, with Two Demi-Brigades and Two Regiments of Cavalry; General D'Estain commanded the Advanced Guard, consisting of One Demi-Brigade, some Light Troops, and a Detachment of Cavalry.

The Action commenced about an Hour before Daylight, by a false Attack on our Left, which was under Major-General Craddock's Command, where they were soon repulsed. The most vigorous Efforts of the Enemy were however directed against our Right, which they used every possible Exertion to turn. The Attack on that Point was begun with great Impetuosity by the French Infantry, sustained by a strong Body of Cavalry, who charged in Column. They were received by our Troops with equal Ardour, and the utmost Steadiness and Discipline. The Contest was unusually obstinate; the Enemy were twice repulsed, and their Cavalry were repeatedly mixed with our Infantry. They at length retired, leaving a prodigious Number of Dead and Wounded on the Field.

While this was passing on the Right, they attempted to penetrate our Centre with a Column of Infantry, who were also repulsed, and obliged to retreat with Loss. The French, during the whole of the Action, refused their Right. They pushed forward, however, a Corps of Light Troops, supported by a Body of Infantry and Cavalry, to keep our Left in Check, which certainly was, at that Time, the weakest Part of our Line.

We have taken about Two Hundred Prisoners (not wounded); but it was impossible to pursue our Victory, on Account of our Inferiority in Cavalry, and because the French had lined the opposite Hills with Cannon, under which they retired. We also have suffered considerably; few more severe Actions have ever been fought, considering the Numbers engaged on both Sides. We have sustained an irreparable Loss in the Person of our never sufficiently to be lamented Commander in Chief, Sir Ralph Abercromby, who was mortally wounded in the Action, and died on the 28th of March. I believe he was wounded early, but he concealed his Situation from those about him, and continued in the Field, giving his Orders with that Coolness and Perspicuity, which had ever marked his Character, till long after the Action was over, when he fainted through Weakness and Loss of Blood. Were it permitted for a Soldier to regret any One who has fallen in the Service of his Country, I might be excused for lamenting him, more than any other Person; but it is some Consolation to those who tenderly loved him, that as his Life was honorable, so was his Death glorious. His Memory will be recorded in the Annals of his Country—will be sacred to every British Soldier, and embalmed in the Recollection of a grateful Posterity.

It is impossible for me to do Justice to the Zeal of the Officers and to the Gallantry of the Soldiers of this Army. The Reserve, against whom the principal Attack of the Enemy was directed, conducted themselves with unexampled Spirit. They resisted the Impetuosity of the French Infantry, and repulsed several Charges of Cavalry. Major-General Moore was wounded at their Head, though not dangerously. I regret, however, the temporary Absence from the Army of this highly valuable and meritorious Officer, whose Counsel and Co-operation would be so highly necessary to me at this Moment. Brigadier-General Oakes was wounded nearly at the same Time, and the Army has been deprived of the Service of an excellent Officer. The 28th and 42d Regiments acted in the most distinguished and brilliant Manner. Colonel Paget, an Officer of great Promise, was wounded at the Head of the former Regiment; he has since, though not quite recovered, returned to his Duty.

Brigadier-General Stuart and the Foreign Brigade supported the Reserve with much Promptness and Spirit: indeed it is but Justice to this Corps to say, that they have, on all Occasions, endeavoured to emulate the Zeal and Spirit exhibited by the British Troops, and have perfectly succeeded. Major-General Ludlow deserves much Approbation for his Conduct when the Centre of the Army was attacked: under his Guidance the Guards conducted themselves in the most cool, intrepid, and soldier-like Manner; they received very effectual Support by a Movement of the Right of General Coote's Brigade. Brigadier-General Hope was wounded in the Hand; the Army has been deprived of the Service of a most active, zealous, and judicious Officer.

The Loss of the Enemy has been great; it is calculated at upwards of Three Thousand killed, wounded, and taken Prisoners. General Roize, who commanded the Cavalry, which suffered considerably, was killed in the Field. Generals Lanusse and Bodet are since dead of their Wounds. I have been informed that several other General Officers, whose Names I do not know, have been either killed or wounded.

I cannot conclude this Letter without solemnly assuring you, that, in the arduous Contest in which we are at present engaged, His Majesty's Troops in Egypt have faithfully discharged their Duty to their Country, and nobly upheld the Fame of the British Name and Nation.

I have the Honor to be, &c.

(Signed) J. H. HUTCHINSON.

Herewith I have the Honor to enclose a List of the Killed and Wounded on the 21st of March.

SIR,

I Have very great Concern in acquainting you, that in a desperate Attack made upon our Lines by the French Army on the Morning of the 21st Ultimo, my gallant and respectable Colleague, General Sir Ralph Abercromby, unfortunately received a Wound, of which he died on board this Ship on the 28th. It is unnecessary to say how much this Calamity has been regretted by the Army and by the Fleet. Their Lordships will observe that the Enemy were repulsed with very great Loss. I enclose, for their Information, a Copy of Sir Sidney Smith's Report of that sustained by the Detachment of Seamen serving under his Orders; and have the Pleasure of adding, that his own Wound has not been so material as to deprive me of his Services. The Marines were not engaged, having been, previously to the Action, appointed to the Duty of Aboukir Castle, and its Vicinity.

I have the Honor to be, &c.

Copy of a Letter from Rear-Admiral Duckworth, Commander in Chief of His Majesty's Ships and Vessels at the Leeward Islands, to Esq; Nelson, Esq; dated Fort Royal, 9th February 1801.

SIR,

CAPTAIN Matfon, of the Daphne, informs me, by Letter of the 22d Ultimo, that on the 16th, observing some Coasters near the Shore, under Convoy of a Schooner, he detached Lieutenant M'Kenzie, with the Boats of the Clare, under Lieutenant Peachy; but on their approaching, all succeeded in getting under the Cover of the Batteries at Basse Terre, One excepted, which anchored near Vieux Fort: this, in the Course of the Night, Lieutenant M'Kenzie boarded and brought off under a heavy Cannonade. The next Morning they observed from the Saints, the above-mentioned Schooner work up in Shore, and anchor at Trois Rivières, covered by a Battery, and flanked by Two others. Notwithstanding those Difficulties, Lieutenant M'Kenzie, with Lieutenant Peachy, volunteered to bring her out, which Captain Matfon was at last prevailed on to accord to; but, from Want of Wind, this gallant Intention was not attempted until after Sunrise on the 18th, when Mr. M'Kenzie, in a Manner which exceeds all Praise, ran the Schooner on board, though a superior Enemy, and evidently prepared for him, when Lieutenant Peachy and M'Kenzie entered with Thirty Men, and, after a Contest of a Quarter of an Hour, succeeded in bringing her off under a most tremendous Fire from the Batteries, she being moored so close to the Shore as to have a Stern Hawser fast on the Beach. In this Contest, the French Captain, his First, Second Lieutenant, and Six Men, were wounded; besides One killed and Two drowned. In the Garland Tender, One Seaman and One Marine killed; the Sergeant of Marines and Two Seamen, wounded:—though I was not an Observer of this Exploit, which appears to me among the first Traits of Gallantry in the course of the War, their Lordships will be able to appreciate the Value of Lieutenant M'Kenzie's Conduct, which, I must further add, is, in its probable Consequences, of the greatest Moment to the Trade of our Islands, as L'Eclair sails rapidly, and, when fully armed, will carry Twelve Six-Pounders, besides Twenty One and a Half-Pounder Brass Guns mounted as Swivels. She was in her Way to Point Petre to complete having left Rochfort armed only with Four Brass Four-Pounders, she Twenty small Guns, and Fifty Men.

I have the Honor to be, &c. &c. &c.

SIR,

Enclosed is a Letter which I have received from Lieutenant Lake, commanding His Majesty's Hired Brig Lady Ann, giving an Account of his having captured the Victoire French Cutter Privateer after a Chace and running Fight of Seventeen Hours. The Lady Ann, after landing Fifty-five Prisoners at Bridlington, arrived here this Day with her Prize and Twenty Prisoners.

I am, Sir, &c. &c. A. DICKSON.

Lady Ann Hired Armed Brig, off Flamborough-Head, May 16, 1801.

SIR,
I Have the Honor to acquaint you, that I this Morning, at Eight A. M., after a Chace and running Fight of Seventeen Hours, captured the Victoire French Privateer, mounting Fourteen long Four-Pounders, and manned with Seventy-five Men, Jean Beville, Commander, a Lieutenant in the French Navy, the Victoire was late His Majesty's Hired Cutter the Active,) sailed from Dunkirk Six Days since, and had made no Captures; when I first gave Chace to him at Three P. M. on the 15th Instant, close in with Flamborough-Head, the Cutter was under a Press of Sail after several loaded Ships, which I have the Pleasure to reflect I prevented him from capturing. I cannot speak too highly of the spirited and good Conduct of the Lady Ann's Company in general: The Two Vessels being so crowded with Prisoners, and several of my People being very weak and sickly, with the Wind blowing strong from the S. W., I think it my Duty to make for the first Port to land the Prisoners, who are far too numerous for our Ship's Company after manning the Prize; I trust and hope my Conduct will meet your Approbation.

I am, with great Respect, Sir, &c.

Archibald Dickson, Esq; Admiral of the Blue, &c. &c. &c.

Copy of a Letter from the Honorable William Cornwallis, Admiral of the Blue, &c. to Evan Nepean, Esq; dated off Ushant, the 21st May 1801.

SIR,

I Enclose, for the Information of the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, a Letter from the Honorable Captain Herbert, of His Majesty's Ship Amelia, giving an Account of his having taken a French Privateer Brig called the Heureux.

I am, &c. W. CORNWALLIS.

SIR,

Amelia, at Sea, May 16, 1801.

I Have the Honor to inform you, that this Evening, having just anchored close to the Mouth of the Loire, I perceived a Man of War Brig standing in, who, upon making us out, tacked with all Sail from us:—as Night was just setting in, and no Time could be lost if she was to be taken, I slipped and made Sail after her, and, after a Chace of about Four Hours, captured her. She proved to be the Heureux Privateer Brig of Saint Maloes, of Fourteen Guns and Seventy-eight Men, out from that Port Forty-one Days, and had taken nothing; the Want of Copper at Saint Maloes, when she was fitting out, probably put her into our Hands so soon.

I am, &c. CHARLES HERBERT.

Admiralty-Office, May 26, 1801.

Copy of a Letter from Captain Griffith, of His Majesty's Ship Diamond, to Evan Nepean, Esq; dated Plymouth-Sound, the 9th Instant.

SIR,

ON the 5th of March I went in quest of a French Ship Privateer, supposed to be cruising about the Island of Palma; on the Morning of the 6th, I fell in with her between that Island and Teneriffe, and, after an arduous Chace, obliged her, in consequence of the Damage she sustained from our Fire, to run on Shore on the North Side of the Island of Gomera, where she very soon became a Wreck.

Having Ocaasion to land some Prisoners, I sent an Officer in for that Purpose with a Flag of Truce, who was informed by the Captain of the Privateer, that her Name was La Mouche, of Eighteen Guns and One Hundred and Sixty Men, belonging to Bourdeaux; the Destruction of this Vessel gave me particular Satisfaction, as she had been a most active and successful Cruiser in those Seas. On the 12th of the same Month, off the N. E. End of Teneriffe, we captured a small Spanish Polacre, laden in Part with sundry Merchandise.

I am, &c.

E. GRIFFITH.

As several Artificers and Manufacturers, Subjects of Great Britain, have, from Time to Time, gone into Foreign Countries to exercise their several Callings, contrary to the Laws of these Kingdoms, the following Abstracts of Acts of Parliament of Their late Majesties King George the First and Second, and of His present Majesty, for preventing such Practices, are published, for the Information of all Persons who may be ignorant of the Penalties they may incur by Disobedience to them: And it will be observed, that such Penalties likewise extend to those who are in any ways concerned or instrumental in the Sending or Enticing Artificers or Manufacturers out of these Kingdoms, or in the Exportation of the Tools and Instruments used by them, as well as to the Artificers or Manufacturers themselves.

Statute 5 George I. Chap. 27.

IF any Person shall contract with, entice, or solicit, any Artificer in Wool, Iron, Steel, Brads, or any other Metal, Clock-maker, Watch-maker, or any other Artificer of Great Britain, to go into Foreign Countries out of the King's Dominions, and shall be convicted thereof, upon Indictment or Information in any of the Courts at Westminster, or at the Assizes or Quarter Sessions, he shall be fined any Sum not exceeding ONE HUNDRED POUNDS for the first Offence, and shall be imprisoned Three Months, and till the Fine be paid. And if any Person having been once convicted shall offend again, he shall be fined at the Discretion of the Court, and be imprisoned Twelve Months, and till the Fine be paid.

Many of the King's Subjects, being such Artificers, shall go into any Country out of His Majesty's Dominions, to exercise or teach the said Trades to Foreigners; and if any of the King's Subjects in any such Foreign Country, exercising any of the said Trades, shall not return into this Realm within Six Months after Warning given by the Ambassador, Minister, or Consul of Great Britain, in the Country where such Artificers shall be, or by any Person authorised by such Ambassador, &c. or by one of the Secretaries of State, and from henceforth inhabit within this Realm; such Person shall be incapable of taking any Legacy, or of being an Executor or Administrator, or of taking any Lands, &c. within this Kingdom, by Descent, Devise, or Purchase, and shall forfeit all Lands, Goods, &c. within this Kingdom, to His Majesty's Use, and shall be deemed Alien, and out of His Majesty's Protection.

Upon Complaint made, upon Oath, before any Justice of Peace, that any Person is endeavouring to seduce any such Artificer, or that any such Artificer hath contracted or is preparing to go out of His Majesty's Dominions, for the Purposes aforesaid, such Justice may send his Warrant to bring the Person complained of before him, or before some other Justice; and if it shall appear by the Oath of One Witness, or by Confession, that he was guilty of any of the said Offences, such Justice may lead him to appear at the next Assizes or Quarter Sessions: And if such Person shall refuse to give Security, the Justice may commit him to Gaol till the next Assizes or Quarter Sessions, and until he shall be delivered by due Course of Law. And if any such Artificer shall be convicted, upon Indictment, of any such Promise, Contract, or Preparation to go beyond the Seas, for the Purpose aforesaid, he shall give such Security to the King not to depart out of His Majesty's Dominions, as such Court shall think reasonable, and shall be imprisoned till Security given.

If any of the above Offences shall be committed in Scotland, the same shall be prosecuted in the Court of Judicatory or the Circuits there.

Statute 23 George II. Chap. 13.

IF any Person shall contract with, or endeavour to seduce any Artificer in Wool, Mohair, Cotton, or Silk, or in Iron, Steel, Brads, or other Metal, or any Clock-maker, Watch-maker, or any other Artificer in any other of the Manufactures of Great Britain or Ireland, to go out of this Kingdom or Ireland into any Foreign Country not within the Dominions of the Crown of Great Britain, and shall be convicted, upon Indictment or Information, in the Kings Bench at Westminster, or by Indictment at the Assizes or General Gaol Delivery for the County, &c. wherein such Offence shall be committed in England, or by Indictment in the Court of Judicatory or any of the Circuit Courts in Scotland, or by Indictment or Information in the King's Bench at Dublin, if such Offence be committed in Ireland; the Person so convicted shall, for every Artificer contracted with or seduced, forfeit FIVE HUNDRED POUNDS, and shall suffer Imprisonment in the Common Gaol of the County or Stewartry wherein such Offender shall be convicted for Twelve Calendar Months, and until Forfeiture be paid: And in case of a subsequent Offence of the same Kind, the Persons so again offending shall forfeit, for every Person contracted with

It shall be lawful for any Officer of the Customs in Great Britain, or for any Officer of the Revenue in Ireland, to seize and secure, in some of His Majesty's Warehouses, all such Tools or Utensils prohibited to be exported, as such Officer shall find on board any Vessel not bound directly to some Port in Great Britain or Ireland, or to some other of the Dominions of the Crown of Great Britain; and all Tools so seized shall, after Condemnation, be publicly sold to the best Bidder; and one Moiety of the Produce shall be to the Use of His Majesty, and the other Moiety to the Officer who shall seize and secure the same.

If the Captain of any Vessel in Great Britain or Ireland knowingly permit any of the said Tools, prohibited to be exported, to be put on board his Vessel, he shall, for every such Offence, forfeit ONE HUNDRED POUNDS, to be recovered as the Penalties inflicted upon Persons exporting the Tools; and, if the Vessel belongs to His Majesty, the Captain shall not only forfeit ONE HUNDRED POUNDS, but shall also forfeit his Employment, and be incapable of any Employment under His Majesty.

If any Officer of the Customs in Great Britain or of the Revenue in Ireland, take, or knowingly suffer to be taken, any Entry outward, or sign any Cocket or Suffrance for the Shipping or Exporting of any of the said Tools, or knowingly suffer the same to be done, he shall forfeit ONE HUNDRED POUNDS, to be recovered as aforesaid, and also forfeit his Office, and be incapable of any Office under His Majesty.

One Moiety of the Forfeitures shall be applied to the Use of His Majesty, and the other Moiety to the Use of the Person who shall sue for the same.

Statutes 14, 21, 25, and 26 of His present Majesty.

BY these Statutes the like Penalties and Forfeitures as above-mentioned are extended to Persons packing or putting on board any Vessel, not bound directly for some Port in Great Britain or Ireland, any Machine, Engine, Tool, Press, Paper, Utensil, or Implement whatsoever, used in or proper for the working or finishing of the Cotton, Steel, or Iron Manufactures of this Kingdom, or any Part or Parts of such Machines or Implements, or any Commissioners, shewing that the said Articles have all been duly landed at the Places for which they were entered Outwards. — And the Right Honorable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, the Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral of Great Britain, and the Lord Warden of the Cinque Ports, are to give the necessary Directions herein as to them may respectively appertain.

Whitehall, May 30, 1801.

THE following Addressee of the General Assembly of the Church of Scotland having been transmitted by the Earl of Leven and Melville, His Majesty's High Commissioner, to His Grace the Duke of Portland, One of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, have been by him presented to the King; which Addresses His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously:

May it please your Majesty,

WE have received, with the most sincere Respect and Gratitude, the very gracious Letter with which your Majesty has been pleased to honor this Meeting of the General Assembly of the Church of Scotland.

Sensible that it is our peculiar Duty to provide for the Preservation of pure Religion, and remembering that the Advancement of Piety, and the Practice of every Christian Duty, at all Times demand from us the greatest Assiduity and Care, we feel that these Considerations are entitled to more than ordinary Attention, when Notions and Principles, equally destructive of the temporal and eternal Welfare of those who entertain them, have been indolently propagated amongst all Orders and Degrees of Men. These Notions and Principles, we beg Leave to assure your Majesty, it is our firm Purpose steadily and uniformly to oppose; and we hope that our Endeavours, combining with the Efforts of all to whom the Interests of Christianity are sacred, and aided by the Blessing of the Most High, may still be effectual to expose their evil Tendency, and check their Progress. In Times like the present, when the Enemies of Religion (like the Enemies of social Order) are always on the Watch, and will not fail to profit by every Advantage which Lukewarmness or Inadvertence may afford them, we feel that the Duties incumbent on us are unusually difficult and momentous. We are convinced, that any Relaxation of those Exertions, which Divine Providence has hitherto crowned with Success, may be productive of the most fatal and ruinous Effects; and, acting under the Influence of this Conviction, we shall study to afford to the Friends of Piety and good Morals every Protection which can result from the vigilant Discharge of the important Duties which your Majesty has so earnestly recommended to our Attention.

We are encouraged to apply ourselves, with the most unwearied Zeal and Assiduity, to the Accomplishment of this great Object, by the Confidence which your Majesty is pleased to repose in us: And while we have a proper Sense of the Difficulties with which the Friends of Religion and good Order have to contend, we are grateful to Almighty God that we are blessed with a Sovereign whose Example and Authority are uniformly employed to enforce the Sanctions of Religion, and give Weight to the Admonitions of its Teachers.

We trust, that both as Individuals watching over the People under our Care, and as an Assembly consulting for the general Interest of the Church of Scotland, we shall ever maintain that sacred Sense of religious Obligation, that loyal Attachment to your Majesty's Person and Government, that tender Concern for the Welfare of the People committed to our Charge, and that Spirit of Christian Love and Charity towards each other, which have hitherto recommended us to your Royal Protection, and which your Majesty has condescended to mention with Approbation.

We rely with entire Confidence on your Majesty's gracious Assurance, that the just Rights and Privileges of the Church of Scotland are Objects of your especial Care; and that it is your Resolution to maintain them unimpaired: That your Majesty has deigned to admonish us with such affectionate Zeal, of the various and important Duties incumbent on us, we consider as a renewed Proof of that warm Concern for the Interests of Religion, and the Prosperity of your People, which has rendered your Majesty so justly dear to all good Men. We are sensible that on the Manner in which these Duties are discharged, the Welfare of the Establishment, the Interests of civil Society, and the Influence of Religion, must in a great Measure depend: and we take the Liberty to assure your Majesty, that both by our Precepts and our Example, we shall ever study to promote the Interests of Religion and Virtue, and to diffuse among the People under our Care Sentiments of Attachment to our happy Constitution, Loyalty to your Majesty's Person and Government, and Zeal for the Public Good.

The Representation of your Royal Person in our General Assemblies we regard with the highest Respect as the Symbol of that Union between Church and State, which tends to give Stability to both. We receive, as a Testimony of your paternal Regard for the Interests of the Church of Scotland, the Appointment of the Earl of Leven and Melville as your Majesty's Commissioner in this Assembly: his approved Loyalty to your Majesty, his warm Zeal for the Cause of Religion, his hereditary Attachment to the Church of Scotland, and his tried Fidelity in the High Office with which your Majesty has again been pleased to invest him, give us the fullest Confidence that we shall continue to receive from his faithful Services the most effectual Co-operation and Support in promoting the Two great Ends of Religion, the Glory of God, and the Welfare of Mankind.

Your Majesty's Donation of One Thousand Pounds, for the Propagation of Christian Knowledge in the Highlands and Islands of Scotland, we have received with the most sincere Gratitude; and it shall be our Care to employ this Mark of your Royal Munificence for promoting, in the most efficacious Manner, the pious Purpose for which it is bestowed.

That Almighty God, the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ may protect your Majesty's Person, and prolong your Reign; that He may bless the Queen, the Prince and Princess of Wales, and all the Royal Family; that He may direct your Councils, and prosper your Administration; that He may continue with us the inestimable Advantages which we enjoy under your Majesty's mild and equitable Government, and transmit them as an Inheritance to future Generations; and that after a long and happy Reign over a free, a loyal, and a religious People, He may receive you into those Mansions where the just inherit an unfading Crown, are the fervent Prayers of,

May it please your Majesty,
Your Majesty's most faithful, most obedient,
and most loyal Subjects,

The Ministers and Elders, met in this General Assembly of the Church of Scotland.

Signed in our Name, in our Presence, and at our Appointment, by

William Ritchie, Moderator.

Edinburgh, May 23, 1801.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, the Ministers and Elders of the Church of Scotland, met together in the General Assembly, beg Leave to approach your Throne with the warmest Sentiments of Thankfulness to God, and of Affection to your Majesty, which your Recovery from a late dangerous Sickness can raise in the Minds of dutiful Subjects who have so long enjoyed the Blessings of your mild and auspicious Administration.

It is with much Satisfaction that we can assure your Majesty of the steady Loyalty and Attachment of the great Body of your Majesty's Subjects in this Part of the United Kingdom to your Majesty's Person and Government, of the strong Sensation of Alarm which they felt on your Majesty's late Illness, and their unfeigned Joy on your Restoration to Health. At the same Time we gladly bear Testimony to their patient Endurance of all the Hardships of the late uncommon Scarcity, which could be equalled only by the generous Exertions of the superior Ranks for their Relief.

When we consider the unprecedented State of War and Desolation, of Fear and Alarm into which Europe has been thrown by the daring Ambition and unjust Usurpations of France, the repeated and audacious Attempts she has made to corrupt the Minds of your Majesty's Subjects in their Principles of Religion and Loyalty, and the implacable Rage with which she has persisted in her Enmity to the British Empire, we contemplate, with the highest Admiration, the Steadiness and Magnanimity of your Majesty's Councils and Conduct amidst the Wreck of so many States, and we return Thanks to Almighty God for having inspired your Majesty with such unshaken Fortitude and persevering Wisdom.

Amidst the splendid Achievements of your Majesty's Reign, permit us to say that we admire and rejoice in none more than in your most fortunate Completion of a Legislative Union between Great Britain and Ireland,—a Measure of State so long wished for with Anxiety by the Wife, and which, whether we consider its Magnitude, the Difficulty of its Accomplishment, or the great and important Effects it is likely to produce, must stand recorded in the Annals of the World as a Master-piece of human Policy, and a lasting Monument of your Majesty's paternal Wisdom. The Experience which your Majesty's Subjects in this Part of the United Kingdom have had, for nearly a Century past, of the happy Consequences of a similar Measure, entitles them to look forward with joyful Expectation to no distant Period, when the United Empire in general, and the neighbouring Island in particular, shall reap the full Fruits of your Majesty's wife and magnanimous Counsels.

While we congratulate your Majesty on having so happily encreased the Energy and Security of your Dominions by this memorable Act of Union, we rejoice in having, at the same Time, an Opportunity of expressing our fervent Gratitude to Almighty God for the Success with which he has crowned your Majesty's Arms. We consider the Victories achieved in the Baltic and in Egypt as having added new Splendour to the Conduct and Valour of your Majesty's Naval and Military Forces; and we trust that, by the Blessing of Heaven, they may be the Means of opening the Eyes of those Nations who, deluded or overawed, have tamely yielded to the haughty Mandates of an ambitious and an arrogant Power, of terminating speedily the Horrors of War, and of leading to a General Peace, which may secure the just Rights of contending Nations, and restore to the World, Concord and Tranquillity.

Your Majesty, we humbly hope, will not consider it as unbecoming or unseasonable, if we mingle with our Joy for the Victory in Egypt our Regret for the Death of Sir Ralph Abercromby, the good and gallant Hero under whom it was achieved. We unite with the Rest of our Fellow-Subjects in feeling that by his Death your Majesty's Service and Kingdom have sustained a signal Loss. But this General Assembly has, at the same Time, peculiar Motives to indulge a tender Interest in his Fate, as one who was a Member of our Church, and whose Name stands on the Roll of our present Assembly. The Nation will raise a Monument to his Valour; it is our melancholy Duty to record and attest to Posterity his Virtues.

That Almighty God, the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, may protect your Majesty's Person, direct your Councils, and render your Administration prosperous; that He may bless our gracious Queen, their Royal Highnesses the Prince and Princess of Wales, and all the Royal Family; and that, after you have reigned long, with Felicity and Wisdom over a free, grateful, and happy People. He may bestow on you that Crown of Righteousness that fadeth not away, are the earnest Prayers of,

May it please your Majesty,
Your Majesty's most faithful, most obedient,
and most loyal Subjects,

The Ministers and Elders met in this
General Assembly of the Church of Scotland.

our Appointment, by

SIR, Martinique, April 27, 1801.

I Lose not a Moment in having the Honor to communicate the Information which has been just now received, of the Islands of St. Eustatius and Saba having surrendered on the 21st Instant, to a Detachment of the 3d Regiment of Foot, under the Command of Lieutenant Colonel Blunt, and Captain Perkins, of His Majesty's Ship Arab.

The enclosed Extract of a Letter from Mr. Prefulent Thomson, commanding at St. Christopher's, ordering Lieutenant-Colonel Blunt to proceed on that Service, and of Lieutenant-Colonel Blunt's Official Letter, acquainting me with the Result, will explain to your Satisfaction all such Circumstances as you may wish to be informed of.

I have only to add, that the Officers charged with the conducting of this Service, have acquitted themselves with such Judgment and Promptitude as to merit and receive my entire Approbation.

I have the Honor to enclose to you herewith, Copy of the Terms on which these Islands were surrendered, and have been placed under His Majesty's Government; but am unable to transmit by this Opportunity the Return of Ordnance, as there is not sufficient Time at present to have it made out correctly.

I have the Honor to be, &c.

(Signed) THO. TRIGGE, Lieut. General.

Extract of a Letter from Lieutenant-Colonel Blunt, of the 3d Regiment of Foot, to Lieutenant General Trigge, dated St. Eustatius, 22d April 1801.

I Have the Honor to enclose an Order addressed to me by the President of St. Kitt's, in consequence of which I embarked on board His Majesty's Ship Arab, Captain Perkins, and an Armed Schooner, his Prize, One Hundred Men of the Buffs, with Lieutenant Brown and Ten Men of the Royal Artillery: We summoned the Island of St. Eustatius on the Morning of the 21st, which surrendered by Capitulation; the Terms of which accompany this, and I hope will not be disapproved by your Excellency. They had no Provisions in the Garrison, and very little in Possession of the Inhabitants.

From the Extent of the Batteries it will not be in my Power to forward, by this Opportunity, Lieutenant Brown's Report of the Ordnance.

I have the Honor to be, &c.

(Signed) RICH. BLUNT, Lieutenant Colonel Buffs.

Extract of a Letter from the President of St. Kitt's to Lieutenant-Colonel Blunt of the 3d Regiment of Foot, dated Basseterre, 20th April, 1801.

I Have just received Information that the Island of Saint Eustatius was evacuated by the French on the 16th Instant.

Under these Circumstances, and considering that a favourable Opportunity now presents itself to acquire the Possession of that Island, and thereby give Security to the Islands in its Neighbourhood, and recover a Number of Negroes who have eloped from hence, and which may be lost by Delay: you will therefore embark with One Hundred Men of the Buffs, on board of His Majesty's Ship Arab, Captain Perkins, and take Possession of the Island of St. Eustatius, which you will retain until his Excellency General Trigge's Pleasure thereupon be known.

I have, &c.

(Signed) ROB. THOMSON.

Copy of a Letter from Rear-Admiral Duckworth, Commander in Chief of His Majesty's Ships and Vessels, at the Leeward Islands, to Evan Nepean, Esq; dated Martinique, the 27th of April 1801.

SIR,

ON the 16th Instant the French Garrison evacuated the Island of St. Eustatius, carrying with them Field-Pieces, and as much Powder, with other Plunder, as their Vessels could stow, which Circumstance having been communicated to President Thompson, of St. Christophers, he very judiciously availed himself of the Moment, by making the Application (of which I enclose you a Copy) to Captain Perkins, of the Arab, which he directly complied with; and on the 21st, Colonel Blunt, with a Detachment of His Majesty's 3d Regiment of Buffs, and Captain Perkins, of the Arab, took Possession of the Island, under the accompanying Capitulation, which included the Island of Saba.

The Ordnance Stores taken in the Island of St. Eustatius consist of Forty-eight Pieces of Cannon of different Calibres, Three Hundred and Thirty-eight Barrels of Powder, with a Quantity of filled Cartridges, as also Musket Ditto, with some Shot, &c.

I have the Honor to be, &c.

J. T. DUCKWORTH.

SIR, Arab, St. Eustatius, April 22, 1801.

THE enclosed is a Copy of a Letter I received from the President of St. Kitt's, in consequence of which I immediately proceeded in compliance with the Contents, after having embarked the Troops at Sandy Point, on board the Arab, and the Spanish Armed Schooner her Prize; I have to inform you that after having sent into St. Eustatius to be acquainted with their Resolutions, on the Morning of the 21st Instant, I received the enclosed Articles of Capitulation,

I am, &c.

JOHN PERKINS.

J. T. Duckworth, Esq; Rear-Admiral of the Red, Commander in Chief, &c.
&c. &c.

SIR,

Basse Terre, April 20, 1801.

I Have just received Information that the Island of St. Eustatius was evacuated by the French on the 16th Instant, and considering this a favourable Opportunity of acquiring the Possession of that Island, I have to request that you will take on board a Detachment of the Buffs under the Command of Lieutenant-Colonel Blunt, and proceed to take Possession of the Island of St. Eustatia in His Majesty's Name.

I have the Honor to be, &c.

ROB. THOMSON, President of St. Christophers.

Captain Perkins, His Majesty's Ship Arab.

[For the Articles of Capitulation see Lieutenant General
Trigge's Dispatch.]

SIR, St. Eustatia, 22d April, 1801.

I have to inform you of the Surrender of this Island Yesterday to His Britannic Majesty's Forces, on Terms of Capitulation, in which your Island is included; you will therefore have to receive the Officer that will hand you this, and leave the British Flag behind.

I remain, Sir, &c.

(Signed) DANIEL RODA.

RICHARD BLUNT, Lieutenant Colonel.

JOHN PERKINS, Captain of the Arab.

To His Excellency Thomas Dezey, Vice-
Commander of the Island Saba.

Downing-Street, June 2, 1801.

A Letter, of which the following is a Copy, having been humbly submitted to His Majesty by the undermentioned Officers, who served in the Detachment of His Majesty's Fifteenth Regiment of Light Dragoons in the Action of Villers en Couché, near Cambray, on the 24th Day of April 1794, His Majesty has been graciously pleased to grant to each of them His Royal Licence and Permission to accept the Rank of Knight of the Imperial Military Order of Maria Theresa, and bear the Insignia thereof; the same having been conferred upon them by the Emperor of Germany, in Testimony of the high Sense which His Imperial Majesty entertained of their distinguished Conduct upon that Occasion.

Major William Aylett, now Lieutenant-Colonel in the Army.

Captain Robert Pocklington, late Major of 15th Dragoons.

Captain Edward Michael Ryan, now Major in the Army.

Lieutenant Thomas Granby Calcraft, Lieutenant-Colonel of 3d Dragoon Guards.

Lieutenant William Keir, Major of 6th Dragoon Guards.

Lieutenant Charles Burrell Blount, late Captain of 15th Light Dragoons.

Cornet Edward Gerald Butler, now Major of 87th Regiment of Foot.

Cornet Robert Thomas Wilton, now Major in Hompesch's Regiment of mounted Riflemen.

Copy of a Letter from his Excellency Lord Minto, His Majesty's Envoy Extraordinary and Plenipotentiary at the Court of Vienna, to Lieutenant-Colonel William Aylett.

SIR, Vienna, November 7, 1800.

I Have received from his Excellency Baron Thugut Eight Crosses of the Order of Maria Theresa, which the Emperor has been pleased to confer on yourself and Seven other Officers undernamed, of the 15th Regiment of Light Dragoons, who distinguished themselves in a most gallant Action, near Villers en Couché, on the 24th of April 1794.

His Imperial Majesty had already testified the high Sense he entertained of the brilliant and important Service which the Regiment performed on that Occasion, by presenting the Officers engaged with a Medal, struck for the Purpose of commemorating that distinguished Action, and according to those who achieved it a halting Testimony of his Approbation and Gratitude. It was deemed at the Time worthy of the Cross of Maria Theresa; but, at that Period, a Doubt was entertained, whether this Order could be conferred on Foreigners: that Difficulty being now removed, His Imperial Majesty avails himself with Pleasure of the Occasion to evince his high Esteem for the Regiment, as well as his Regard for the Individuals, by investing with this distinguished Order of Merit Gentlemen who have proved themselves so worthy to wear it.

In transmitting to you, Sir, these Crosses, to be distributed to the Officers for whom they are destined, I cannot omit the Opportunity of expressing the Satisfaction I have experienced from the Share which my Situation here has afforded me in a Transaction which, while it does Honor to the Liberality of His Imperial Majesty, and throws so much Lustre on the Corps, and on those who are immediately concerned, reflects, at the same Time, Credit on the Country to which they belong.

I have the Honor to be,

Sir,

your obedient,

humble Servant,

(Signed) MINTO.
